Learning Targets

- Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences.
- Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
- Interpret figures of speech (e.g., hyperbole, paradox) in context and analyze their role in the text.
- Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grades 11–12 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.

Writing a Reflective Essay

We often gain new insights and knowledge by living through experiences, but we also do the same by reflecting on and communicating those experiences in writing. A reflective essay is a type of personal narrative in which writers share insights and observations about life, often through presenting a problem and exploring how it was resolved (or left unresolved) as a result of the writer's experiences. This type of writing draws upon personal experiences and imaginative thinking. It provides rich opportunities for recollection of past, present, or imagined experiences and thoughtful reflection on these experiences. Sometimes, by going through the process of revisiting a past event and considering how it helped us to grow and change, we understand our own experiences better than ever before—and, through our writing, we can allow others to do so, as well.

To develop your skills as a non fiction narrative writer, you will engage in a series of activities in which you work with your teacher and with your classmates to construct two model reflective essays. You will then use these models to construct your own reflective essay.
