The Routledge Handbook of Phenomenology of Agency Christopher Erhard, Tobias Keiling, 2020-10-29 Phenomenology has primarily been concerned with questions about knowledge and ontology However in recent years the rise of interest and research in phenomenology and embodiment the emotions and cognitive science has seen the concept of agency move to a central place in the study of phenomenology generally The Routledge Handbook of Phenomenology of Agency is an outstanding reference source to this topic and the first volume of its kind It comprises twenty seven chapters written by leading international contributors Organised into two parts the following key topics are covered major figures the metaphysics of agency rationality voluntary and involuntary action moral experience deliberation and choice phenomenology of agency and the cognitive sciences phenomenology of freedom embodied agency Essential reading for students and researchers in phenomenology philosophy of mind metaphysics and philosophy of cognitive science The Routledge Handbook of Phenomenology of Agency will also be of interest to those in closely related subjects such as sociology and psychology

From Action to Ethics Constantine Sandis, 2024-01-11 Over the course of the last 15 years Constantine Sandis has advanced our understanding of the role that action plays in shaping our moral thought In this collection of his best essays in the philosophy of action Sandis brings together updated versions of his writings accompanied by a new introduction Read collectively they demonstrate the breadth of his interests and ability to relate to broader issues within the culture connecting debates in philosophical psychology about motivation negligence and moral responsibility with Greek tragedy social psychology and literature Along this path from action to ethics Sandis engages with Hegel Wittgenstein Anscombe Ricoeur Davidson and Dretske together with contemporary authors such as Jennifer Hornsby and Jonathan Dancy As he responds to each thinker and theme he develops his own philosophical position the key thesis of which is that philosophy of action without ethics is empty ethics without philosophy of action is blind

Contestatory Cosmopolitanism Tom Bailey, 2018-10-11 Contemporary global politics poses urgent challenges from humanitarian migratory and environmental problems to economic religious and military conflicts that strain not only existing political systems and resources but also the frameworks and concepts of political thinking The standard cosmopolitan response is to invoke a sense of global community governed by such principles as human rights or humanitarianism free or fair trade global equality multiculturalism or extra national democracy Yet the contours grounds and implications of such a global community remain notoriously controversial and it risks abstracting precisely from the particular and conflictual character of the challenges which global politics poses The contributions to this collection undertake to develop a more fruitful cosmopolitan response to global political challenges one that roots cosmopolitanism in the particularity and conflict of global politics itself They argue that this contestatory cosmopolitanism must be dialectical agonistic and democratic that is its concepts and principles must be developed immanently and critically out of prevailing normative resources they must reflect and acknowledge their antagonistic roots and they must be the result of participatory and self determining publics In elaborating this alternative the contributions also return to neglected cosmopolitan theorists like Hegel Adorno Arendt Camus Derrida and Mouffe and reconsider mainstream figures such as Kant and Habermas This collection was originally published as a special edition of Critical Horizons
