Philosophy S Artful Conversation:

Philosophy's Artful Conversation D. N. Rodowick, 2015-01-05 Theory an embattled discourse for decades faces a new challenge from those who want to model the methods of all scholarly disciplines on the sciences What is urgently needed says D N Rodowick is a revitalized concept of theory that can assess the limits of scientific explanation and defend the unique character of humanistic understanding

New Philosophies of Film Robert Sinnerbrink, 2022-07-28 What can philosophy teach us about cinema Can cinema transform how we understand philosophy How should we describe the competing approaches to philosophizing on film New Philosophies of Film answers these questions by offering a lucid introduction to the exciting developments and contentious debates within the philosophy of film Mapping out the conceptual terrain it examines both analytic and continental approaches to cinema and puts forward a pluralist film philosophy grounded in practical examples from film documentaries and television series Now thoroughly updated to showcase the most recent developments in the field this 2nd edition features New chapters on phenomenology cinematic ethics philosophical documentary film and television as philosophy incorporating feminist socio political ethical and ecological approaches to cinema Contemporary case studies including Carol Roma Melancholia two Derrida documentaries and the Netflix series Black Mirror Expanded coverage of Gilles Deleuze and Stanley Cavell two of the most influential philosophers of film An updated bibliography filmography and reading lists with links to online resources to support further study Demonstrating how the film philosophy encounter can open up new paths for thinking New Philosophies of Film is an essential resource for putting interdisciplinary inquiry into practice

Seeing Education on Film Alexis Gibbs, 2019-12-09 This book argues that certain films have more to offer by way of conceptualising education than textual scholarship Drawing on the work of the later Wittgenstein it suggests that a shift in our philosophical focus from knowing to seeing can allow for ordinary educational phenomena teachers schools children to be appreciated anew The book argues that cinema is the medium best placed to draw attention to this revaluation of the everyday and particular films are presented as offering unique insights into the aesthetic nature of education as a concept The book will be of primary interest to educators and educationalists alike but its interdisciplinary nature should also appeal to those in the fields of film study philosophy and aesthetics

Plato and the Moving Image Shai Biderman, Michael Weinman, 2019-05-27 This book shows how and why debates in the philosophy of film can be advanced through the study of the role of images in Plato's dialogues and conversely why Plato studies stands to benefit from a consideration of recent debates in the philosophy of film Contributions range from a reading of Phaedo as a ghost story to thinking about climate change documentaries through Plato's account of pleonexia They suggest how philosophical aesthetics can be reoriented by attending anew to Plato's deployment of images particularly images that move They also show how Plato's deployment of images is integral to his practice as a literary artist Contributors are Shai Biderman David Calhoun Michael Forest Jorge Tomas Garcia Abraham Jacob Greenstine Paul A Kottman Danielle A Layne David McNeill Erik W Schmidt Timothy Secret

Adrian Switzer and Michael Weinman Film, Art, and the Limits of Science Malcolm Turvey, 2025-04-26 There is currently a vigorous debate in film studies and related disciplines about the extent to which scientific paradigms like evolutionary psychology and neuroscience can explain the cinema and other artforms This debate tends to devolve into extreme positions with many film scholars and other humanists insisting that science has little or no role to play in the study of the arts while a minority contends that it is always needed to fully account for cultural phenomena like film Malcolm Turvey advocates for a more moderate position He argues that while the sciences can explain much about film and the other arts there is much about these phenomena that only humanistic methods can account for He thereby mounts a trenchant defence of the purpose and value of humanistic explanation one that nevertheless acknowledges and welcomes the legitimate contribution of the sciences to the study of the arts

An Introduction to Design Arguments Benjamin C. Jantzen, 2014-02-27 The history of design arguments stretches back to before Aquinas who claimed that things which lack intelligence nevertheless act for an end to achieve the best result Although science has advanced to discredit this claim it remains true that many biological systems display remarkable adaptations of means to ends Versions of design arguments have persisted over the centuries and have culminated in theories that propose an intelligent designer of the universe This volume is the only comprehensive survey of 2 000 years of debate drawing on both historical and modern literature to identify clarify and assess critically the many forms of design argument for the existence of God It provides a neutral informative account of the topic from antiquity to Darwin and includes concise primers on probability and cosmology It will be of great value to upper level undergraduates and graduates in philosophy of religion theology and philosophy of science Philosophy and Film Christina Rawls, Diana Neiva, Steven S. Gouveia, 2019-04-25 This volume collects twenty original essays on the philosophy of film It uniquely brings together scholars working across a range of philosophical traditions and academic disciplines to broaden and advance debates on film and philosophy The book includes contributions from a number of prominent philosophers of film including No 1 Carroll Chris Falzon Deborah Knight Paisley Livingston Robert Sinnerbrink Malcolm Turvey and Thomas Wartenberg While the topics explored by the contributors are diverse there are a number of thematic threads that connect them Overall the book seeks to bridge analytic and continental approaches to philosophy of film in fruitful ways Moving to the individual essays the first two sections offer novel takes on the philosophical value and the nature of film The next section focuses on the film as philosophy debate Section IV covers cinematic experience while Section V includes interpretations of individual films that touch on questions of artificial intelligence race and film and cinema s biopolitical potential Finally the last section proposes new avenues for future research on the moving image beyond film This book will appeal to a broad range of scholars working in film studies theory and philosophy

An Education in Judgment D. N. Rodowick, 2023-08-02 In An Education in Judgment philosopher D N Rodowick makes his definitive case for a philosophical humanistic education as the development of a life guided by both self reflection and interpersonal exchange Such a life is an education in judgment the moral capacity to draw conclusions alone and with others and to let one s own judgments be answerable to the potentially contrasting judgments of others Thinking for Rodowick is an art we practice with and learn from each other all the time In taking this approach Rodowick follows the lead of Hannah Arendt who made judgment the cornerstone of her conception of community Arendt was famously wary of mass culture and so community in an authentic sense must be safeguarded from its many false guises What is important for Rodowick as for Arendt is the cultivation of free relations in which we allow our judgments to be affected and transformed by those of others creating an ever widening fabric of intersubjective moral consideration This is a fragile fabric to be sure but one well worth pursuing caring for and preserving This is an original work in which the author thinks with Arendt about the importance of the humanities and what the humanities amounts to beyond the university

Historical Turns Nicholas Baer, 2024-07-30 Historical Turns reassesses Weimar cinema in light of the crisis of historicism widely diagnosed by German philosophers in the early twentieth century Through bold new analyses of five legendary works of German silent cinema The Cabinet of Dr Caligari Destiny Rhythm 21 The Holy Mountain and Metropolis Nicholas Baer argues that films of the Weimar Republic lent vivid expression to the crisis of historical thinking With their experiments in cinematic form and style these modernist films revealed the capacity of the medium to engage with fundamental questions about the philosophy of history Reconstructing the debates over historicism that unfolded during the initial decades of moving image culture Historical Turns proposes a more reflexive mode of historiography and expands the field of film and media philosophy The book excavates a rich archive of ideas that illuminate our own moment of rapid media transformation and political economic and environmental crises around the globe

Practical Aesthetics Bernd Herzogenrath, 2020-10-15 This collection brings together artists and theoreticians to provide the first anthology of a new field Practical Aesthetics A work of art already contains its own criticism a knowledge of its own which need not be conceptual or propositional Yet today there are many approaches to different forms of art that work on the brink between science and art sensible cognition and proposition aesthetic knowledge and rational knowledge while thinking with art or the artistic material rather than about it This volume presents ways of thinking with different forms of art film sound dance literature etc as well as new forms of aesthetic research and presentation such as Media Philosophy the audiovisual essay fictocriticism the audio paper and Artistic Research It reveals how writing about art can become artistic or poetic in its own right not only writing about artistic effects but producing them in the first place This takes art not as an object of external analysis but as a subject with a knowledge in its own right creating a co composing conceptual interference pattern between theory and practice A practical aesthetics thus understood can be described as thinking with art in order to find new ways to create worlds and thus to make the world perceivable in different ways

Critical Conversations in African Philosophy Alena Rettová, Benedetta Lanfranchi, Miriam Pahl, 2021-11-29 In this edited collection contributors examine key themes sources and methods in contemporary African Philosophy building on a wide ranging understanding of what constitutes African philosophy and drawing from a variety of both oral and written texts of different genres Part one of the volume examines how African philosophy has reacted to burning issues ranging from contemporary ethical questions on how to integrate technological advancements into human life to one of philosophy's prime endeavours which is establishing the conditions of knowledge to eternal ontological and existential questions on the nature of being time memory and death Part two reflects on the re definition of philosophy from an African vantage point and African philosophy's thrust to create its own canon archive and resources to study African concepts artefacts practices and texts from the perspective of intellectual history The volume aims to make a contribution to the academic debate on African philosophy and philosophy more broadly challenging orthodox definitions and genres in favour of a broadening of the discipline's self understanding and locales This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African philosophy and comparative philosophy

Why Only Art Can Save Us Santiago Zabala, 2017-09-05 The state of emergency according to thinkers such as Carl Schmidt Walter Benjamin and Giorgio Agamben is at the heart of any theory of politics But today the problem is not the crises that we do confront which are often used by governments to legitimize themselves but the ones that political realism stops us from recognizing as emergencies from widespread surveillance to climate change to the systemic shocks of neoliberalism We need a way of disrupting the existing order that can energize radical democratic action rather than reinforcing the status quo In this provocative book Santiago Zabala declares that in an age where the greatest emergency is the absence of emergency only contemporary art's capacity to alter reality can save us Why Only Art Can Save Us advances a new aesthetics centered on the nature of the emergency that characterizes the twenty first century Zabala draws on Martin Heidegger's distinction between works of art that rescue us from emergency and those that are rescuers into emergency The former are a means of cultural politics conservers of the status quo that conceal emergencies the latter are disruptive events that thrust us into emergencies Building on Arthur Danto Jacques Rancière and Gianni Vattimo who made aesthetics more responsive to contemporary art Zabala argues that works of art are not simply a means of elevating consumerism or contemplating beauty but are points of departure to change the world Radical artists create works that disclose and demand active intervention in ongoing crises Interpreting works of art that aim to propel us into absent emergencies Zabala shows how art's ability to create new realities is fundamental to the politics of radical democracy in the state of emergency that is the present

New Waves in Aesthetics K. Stock, K. Thomson-Jones, 2008-08-01 Leading young scholars present a collection of wide ranging essays covering central problems in meta aesthetics and aesthetic issues in the philosophy of mind as well as offering analyses of key aesthetic concepts new perspectives on the history of aesthetics and specialized treatment of individual art forms

Passions and Projections Robert Neal Johnson, Michael Smith, 2015 This volume presents fourteen original essays which explore the philosophy of Simon Blackburn and his lifetime pursuit of a distinctive projectivist and anti realist research program The essays document the range and influence of Blackburn's work and reveal among other things the resourcefulness of his brand of philosophical pragmatism

Social Theories of Art Ian Heywood, 1997 This book offers a critical examination of influential social theories of art that points to the poverty of much contemporary art theory including that of the New Art History and its deconstructionist critics and the important but underacknowledged ethical implications of theorizing Heywood writes clearly and illuminatingly about the problematic relationship between the seminar and the studio theory and practice his findings will be of interest and relevance to students of sociology art history fine art philosophy and cultural studies

Making Theory/Constructing Art Daniel Alan Herwitz, Daniel Herwitz, 1996-05-15 Artists and critics regularly enlist theory in the creation and assessment of artworks but few have scrutinized the art theories themselves Here Daniel examines and critiques the norms assumptions historical conditions and institutions that have framed the development and uses of art theory Spurred by the theoretical claims of Arthur Danto a leader in the philosophy of the avant garde Herwitz reexamines the art and theory of major figures in the avant garde movement including John Cage Jean François Lyotard Jean Baudrillard and Andy Warhol

Making Theory/Constructing Art Daniel Herwitz, 1993-11 Artists and critics regularly enlist theory in their creation and assessment of artworks but few have scrutinized the art theories themselves Making Theory Constructing Art On the Authority of the Avant Garde is among the first philosophical texts to provide a close encounter with this theoretical tendency in twentieth century art and aesthetics exploring the norms assumptions historical conditions and institutions that have framed the development and uses of theory in art In a series of intricate readings of constructivism Mondrian and John Cage Daniel Herwitz outlines the avant garde s belief that theory can perfectly prefigure the avant garde art object and invest it with utopian force Through similarly insightful treatments of Arthur Danto Andy Warhol Jean Francois Lyotard Jean Baudrillard and postmodern art and theory Herwitz demonstrates how the contemporary art world is heir to the avant garde s theoretical assumptions and practices In fact avant garde art objects live as art only by partly resisting the master theories of their makers and interpreters Skillfully resisting the lure of grand theory himself Herwitz urges the art world to be more self critical and self reflective about its uses of theory Making Theory Constructing Art is as accessible and entertainingly written as it is philosophically incisive Since the book is both a philosophical and a cultural encounter with theory in twentieth century art it will engage all those who have tried to grapple with the inscrutability of the theoretical art muse

Artistic Approaches to Cultural Mapping Nancy Duxbury, W.F. Garrett-Petts, Alys Longley, 2018-09-03 Making space for imagination can shift research and community planning from a reflective stance to a future forming orientation and practice Cultural mapping is an emerging discourse of collaborative community based inquiry and advocacy This book looks at artistic approaches to cultural mapping focusing on imaginative cartography It emphasizes the importance of creative process that engages with the felt sense of community experiences an element often missing from conventional mapping practices International artistic contributions in this book reveal the creative research practices and languages of artists a prerequisite to understanding the multi modal interface of cultural mapping The book examines how contemporary artistic approaches can challenge conventional asset mapping by animating and honouring the local giving voice and definition to the vernacular or recognizing the notion of place as inhabited by story and history It explores the processes of seeing and listening and the importance of the aesthetic as a key component of community self expression and self representation Innovative contributions in this book champion inclusion and experimentation expose unacknowledged power relations and catalyze identity formation through multiple modes of artistic representation and performance It will be a valuable resource for individuals involved with creative research methods performance and cultural mapping as well as social and urban planning

Drawn Toward Transformation Nadine Kalin, 2009-01-01 This book examines the transformative potential of collaborative teacher research Specifically Kalin shares the perspectives of educators as they investigate the teaching and learning of drawing within their own elementary classrooms and within the context of an action research group The innovative cartographic design of the project provides a rich balance between the arts and educational research as it allows for the complex unfolding of relational transformation alongside the artistic renditions of each person exploring their understandings of drawing The products and processes of this book provide alternative approaches for the design of future pre service and in service programs that aim to serve teachers as learners rather than teachers as teachers In this vein the book offers worthy insights into how the arts and collaborative action research groups assist participants in finding other ways of seeing imaging and knowing the world The book will appeal to practitioners teacher educators educational researchers as well as those interested in professional development complexity thinking curriculum studies collaborative action research and arts based educational research methodologies
