My Search for Meaning Laurence C Jeffrey, 2024-11-04 The text My search for meaning was inspired by the author's early curiosity about life's meaning and his reflection on several worldly experiences traversing the continents of North and South America Europe Asia and Africa His interest in and studies of western academic philosophy provides the schema that brings to light the crux of his discovery and the text is intended to share with the reader the author's understanding of life The author hopes that by reading this text it would inspire others to explore philosophical ideas in a broader context

Love in Interpretation Bryant K. Owens, 2019-02-28 Dr Bryant K Owens presents the argument of the value of the Christian tradition of caritas or love from the philosophy and the subsequent hermeneutic of Saint Augustine of Hippo 354-430 within contemporary philosophical scholarship Dr Owens's study of Augustine's investigations into biblical interpretation will reveal that he sought the beauty of understanding as evidenced through caritas The shift in the Western philosophical tradition during the Enlightenment period resulted in a solid break from authority based hermeneutics to the autonomy of the mind The result was a greater emphasis on the literal meaning of a text as gleaned from the subjective mind of the reader and through grammatical and historical criticism over the spiritual meaning of the text or application of the greater meaning to Christian living Dr Owens proposes that the benefits of Augustine's caritas as the a priori spirit of the biblical text and the proper application of that spirit in contemporary scholarship should be the epistemological focus of hermeneutics rather than the emphasis on method prevalent from Spinoza to Dilthey The concluding value from Augustine's hermeneutic is that caritas is a product of understanding while at the same time is the method or means by which caritas is produced Therefore Augustine's hermeneutic argues that the sense or spirit of Scripture is caritas and is the truth to which all Christian philosophy must cohere

Divinity, Hospitality and the Posthuman in 21st-Century Literature Emily McAvan, 2024-10-17 What does it feel like to experience the sacred today Examining in detail many of this century's most significant writers including Margaret Atwood Salman Rushdie Elizabeth

Strout Marilynne Robinson Mohsin Hamid Michael Chabon Howard Jacobson and Don DeLillo Divinity Hospitality and the Posthuman in 21st Century Literature The Material Sacred argues that contemporary social and cultural forms most especially those of 21st century literature are marked by what Emily McAvan calls a material sacred Placing Christian Jewish and Muslim writers in conversation with the new materialisms this book shows how secular and sacred mix unpredictably in contemporary writing In this important contribution to the understanding of religion materialism and literature McAvan maps new territory arguing that the material sacred shows us that the human and non human the divine and the profane have been interwoven from the start Right Here, Right Now Stephen J. Harper, 2019-09-03 Including a new and insightful afterword by the author Stephen J Harper Canada's 22nd Prime Minister draws on a decade of experience as a G 7 leader to help leaders in business and government understand adapt and thrive in an age of unprecedented disruption The world is in flux Disruptive technologies ideas and politicians are challenging business models norms and political conventions everywhere How we as leaders in business and politics choose to respond matters greatly Some voices refuse to concede the need for any change while others advocate for radical realignment But neither of these positions can sustainably address the legitimate concerns of disaffected citizens Right Here Right Now sets out a pragmatic forward looking vision for leaders in business and politics by analyzing how economic social and public policy trends including globalized movements of capital goods and services and labour have affected our economies communities and governments Harper contends that Donald Trump's surprise election and governing agenda clearly signal that political economic and social institutions must be more responsive to legitimate concerns about public policy market regulation immigration and technology Urging readers to look past questions of style and gravitas Harper thoughtfully examines the substantive underpinnings of how and why Donald Trump was able to succeed Barack Obama as President of the United States and how these forces are manifesting themselves in other western democracies Analyzing international trade market regulation immigration technology and the role of government in the digital economy Harper lays out the case for pragmatic leadership as a proven solution to the uncertainty and risk that businesses and governments face today The City of Detroit Clarence Monroe Burton, 1922 The City of Detroit, Michigan, 1701-1922 Clarence Monroe Burton, William Stocking, Gordon K. Miller, 1922
