17 Quick Tips to Write an A+ Philosophy Term Paper

April 12, 2016 • 2 min read • original

1) Do an online research. Before you pack your things and go to the library, do an online research from the comfort of your laptop. Here are a couple of academic search engines that will offer you a safe and student friendly environment:

- Scholar.google.com
- The OALster database
- Internet Public Library

2) Effectively manage knowledge. Use special apps to save and organize the information you collect. Here's what can help:

- Mendeley
- Biblioscape
- Bookends

3) Brainstorm your topic. This simple method can save you plenty of time and bring surprising results. Set a timer and try to generate as many ideas as possible within a chosen time period. Make it a rule to write down every idea crossing your mind (even if it seems crazy). You'll have time to sort out your ideas later.

4) Create an outline. After you choose all major arguments, work on the logical structure of your paper. As an option, draw a mind map for your would-be paper.

5) Create a thesis statement. Just like any other academic paper, your Philosophy term paper will require a strong thesis statement, the last sentence in the introduction part, briefly summarizing the main idea of your paper.

6) Write a stunning introduction. Start with an attention hook – a quote, a rhetorical question, striking stats or an interesting fact.

7) Explain why you chose this topic.
