The original artwork (Subtropical NYC) was a colorful, abstract composition that drew from the artist's photography and the vibrant colors of the city. It was a dense, layered collage of various elements, including architectural structures, figures, and natural elements, rendered in a vibrant, almost painterly style. The colors are rich and varied, with a strong emphasis on reds, oranges, yellows, and blues. The composition is complex and multi-layered, suggesting a sense of depth and movement.
