| HISTORY AND BACKGROUND          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| AUTHOR                   | Paul the Apostle, Rome.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| DATE                     | AD 56-58 (most scholars believe Paul wrote the letter while he was in Rome, awaiting trial in the city of Rome).                                                                                                                                                           |
| KEY THEMES               | <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Justification by faith alone, not by works.</li><li>2. The universality of sin and the need for a savior.</li><li>3. The relationship between law and grace.</li><li>4. The role of the church in the world.</li></ol>            |
| THEOLOGICAL SIGNIFICANCE | This book is one of the most important in the New Testament. It is a key text for understanding the Christian faith, particularly the doctrine of justification by faith alone. It also provides a clear statement of Paul's view of the church and its role in the world. |
