

“Welcome to Kindergarten”

Dear Parents,

A warm welcome to all our kindergarteners! We hope you had a blast last summer and ready for this year's learning adventure. Kindergarten is a time for children to expand their love of learning, their general knowledge, their ability to get along with others, and their interest in reaching out to the world. Our educational program is set to meet all that and provide a nurturing environment. While kindergarten marks an important transition, it is important that children still get to be children. “Your children are in for a treat!” Kindergarten life is sweet with all the fun and exciting activities. Let's all gear up for a successful year!

Epistolary Selves Rebecca Earle, 2016-12-05 This volume of ten essays discusses the pivotal role that letters have played in social economic and political history from the seventeenth to the twentieth century The recent scholarly interest in the history of reading has as yet yielded few studies which consider letters as a category of readable material The contributors to this book seek to redress this oversight viewing letters as texts which can reveal information not only about their writers and readers but about the wider historical context in which they were written Topics covered include the mercantile letter diplomatic correspondence and what these epistolary forms suggest about the rise of a polite literate culture in the eighteenth century the experience of immigration from Europe to America during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the relationship through the letter and the working of gender in the epistolary form Rebecca Earle provides an overview of how the study of letter writing can open up new avenues of historical as well as literary investigation This together with contributions from leading international scholars makes Epistolary Selves an essential text for those researching the letter genre

Who Cares About Parents? Kim Price-Glynn, 2025-11-11 Who cares for parental caregivers The short answer is parenting groups do Who Cares for Parents examines how parenting groups collectively build and contribute significant resources to form a broader care infrastructure for adult family caregivers with children This book looks at the content of care parenting groups provide for parents through comparative research including mothers fathers and nonbinary parents Cases include some of the most recognizable parenting groups in the United States some with vast networks of parent members numbering in the thousands or even millions like the Parent Teacher Association La Leche League and MOMS Club International The book also examines newer and perhaps less well known groups like the City Dads Group the Upper East Side UES Mommas as well as smaller sets of local dads groups and a babysitting co op Can parents in the contemporary United States secure some of the necessary resources to provide care not only for their children but also for themselves through parenting groups The evidence from this research suggests they can Parenting groups have a long history of organizing membership meetings education material resources and advocacy to provide for parents needs Parenting groups ideologies and practices often seek broad goals and sometimes include far reaching advocacy innovative solutions and possibilities for what Price Glynn calls strategic parenting and social change Alongside their successes however parenting groups also face challenges of producing narrow and temporary alliances exclusion and exacerbating inequalities Despite their many challenges Price Glynn remains hopeful about the possibilities for non familial and collective care infrastructure like that performed by parent groups
