C Characterisation & Setting — Crooks and his Room

This chapter is set in the harness room, 'a little shed that leaned off the wall of the barn', home to Crooks, 'the negro stable back'. There is a detailed description of his room and its contents. Living in seclusion in a small, isolated room, Crooks lives a better and lonely life in the barn, which is a foreshadowing place in the story.

1 Write a contents list for Crooks's room and say what each item tells us about him.

Items	What it tells us about Crooks
Long box filled with straw, on which his blankets were flung
Pegs on which hung broken harness in place of being mended
A little bench for leather-working

2 Using the passage from Chapter 4 below, draw a realistic, accurate picture of Crooks's room. Why do you think Steinbeck has included a character like Crooks in the novel?

"Crooks had an apple box on his back, and in it a range of medicine bottles, both for himself and for the mules. There were cans of saddle soap and a drabby can of tar with its paint brush sticking over the side. And scattered about the floor were a number of personal possessions, for, being alone, Crooks threw his things about, and being a stable back and a cripple, he was more parsimonious than the other men, and he had accumulated more possessions than he could carry on his back.

"Crooks possessed several pairs of shoes, a pair of rubber boots, a big alarm clock and a single-barreled shotgun. On the bed he had books, too; a tattered dictionary and a mangled copy of the California civil code for 1905. There were battered magazines and a few dirty books on a special shelf over his back. A pair of large gold-rimmed spectacles hung from a nail on the wall above his head. This room was neat and tidy next, for Crooks was a proud, clean man." (Chapter 4, p. 75-76)
