Transforming Talk into Text Thomas M. McCann, 2014-08-08 Author Thomas McCann invites readers to rethink their approach to teaching writing by capitalizing on students' instinctive desire to talk. Drawing on extensive classroom research he shows teachers how to craft class discussions that build students' skills of analysis problem solving and argumentation as a means of improving student writing. McCann demonstrates how authentic discussions immerse learners in practices that become important when they write. Chapters feature portraits of teachers at work including transcripts that reveal patterns of talk across a set of lessons. Interviews with the teachers and samples of student writing afford readers a deeper understanding of process. Students also report on how classroom discussions supported their effort to produce persuasive argument driven essays.

The Teaching of Reading in Spanish to the Bilingual Student: La Enseñanza de la Lectura en Español Para El Estudiante Bilingüe Angela Carrasquillo, Philip Segan, 2013-10-14 This dual language text provides theory and methodology for teaching reading in Spanish to Spanish English bilingual or Spanish dominant students. The goal is to help educators teach these students the skills necessary to become proficient readers and thus successful in the school system. At the very core of the book are the hispano parlantes the Spanish speaking children who bring to the schools along with their native language and cultures a wealth of resources that must be tapped and to whom all educators have a responsibility to respond. True to the concepts of developing bilingual educators to serve bilingual students the text presents chapters in English and Spanish. Each chapter is written in only one language at the preference of the author. Thus to be successful with this book the reader must be bilingual. Themes emphasized in the text include current reading methodologies the concept of reading as developmental literacy skills reading in the content areas new views of the development of proficiency in the second language issues related to students with special learning needs assessment and the uses of technology in the delivery of instruction. Never losing sight of its goal to teach reading in Spanish to bilingual or Spanish dominant students the book includes a series of focusing questions and follow up activities these are not simply translations of existing activities strategies and techniques intended for monolingual English students but specifically designed to be appropriate for Spanish speaking students. Directed to university preservice and in service instructors of reading and bilingual education as well as administrators and district and school level staff.
