You are going to write an essay in which you express and support your opinion.

Your mom wants you to learn more responsibility. She has decided she's going to let you get a pet from the pet store! When you went to the pet store, you narrowed it down to a hamster or a dog. Which would you choose to teach you more responsibility?

Write an essay in which you give reasons for your choice and explain why your choice is better than the other option. Be sure to include details and examples to support your reasons.

Sample Aspire Writing Prompts:

Science the "write" Way Jodi Wheeler-Toppen, 2011 Writing skills are high on the list of real world requirements for all students. Including science students. Every scientific discipline needs professionals who can ably communicate in writing. Scientists must be able to describe their proposed studies for funding considerations, track their observations and results in their own notes, describe their experimental protocols for their peers to replicate and synthesize their work to the wider world community. Stimulating Story Writing! Simon Brownhill, 2015-10-16 Stimulating Story Writing Inspiring Children aged 7-11 offers innovative and exciting ways to inspire children to want to create stories and develop their story writing skills. This practical guide offers comprehensive and informed support for professionals to effectively engage child authors in stimulating story writing activity. Packed full of story ideas, resource suggestions and practical activities, the book explores various ways professionals can help children to develop the six key elements of story: these being character, setting, plot, conflict, resolution and ending. All of the ideas in the book are designed to complement and enrich existing writing provision in classrooms with strategies such as role play, the use of different technologies and using simple open-ended resources as story stimuli. Separated into two sections and with reference to the Key Stage 2 curricula, this timely new text provides professionals with tried and tested strategies and ideas that can be used with immediate effect. Chapters include: Creating Characters, The Plot Thickens, Inspired Ideas, Resourcing the Story, Stimulation. This timely new text is the perfect guide for inspiring children aged 7-11 in the classroom and will be an essential resource for teachers and students on teacher training courses. Arco GMAT Thomas H. Martinson, 1996 The ideal interactive GMAT study program. Professional and Public Writing Linda S. Coleman, Robert Funk, 2005 This book introduces readers and writers to the techniques of discourse analysis, genre theory and primary including ethnographic and secondary research. It also engages learners in extensive practice and a sequence of increasingly complex and comprehensive Writer's Profiles ending with a researched literature review and argument. Two casebooks offer illustrative and thematically linked readings from a wide variety of public and professional sources. The book contains a broad-based sampling of academic writing and professional and public genres: journal essays, fact sheets, newsletters, Web sites and proposals. For individuals taking stock of their acquired personal skills and those required of professionals in the writing careers to which they aspire. Shorthand Writer and Takigrafer, 1882 Write Yourself In Eric Tipler, 2024-06-11 Write authentic memorable college essays that will help you get into the right school for you with this guidebook from a veteran college admissions expert. Every spring over one million high school juniors embark on an annual rite of passage: applying to college. And with college admission rates at an all-time low, getting into a competitive school is now tougher than ever. At the top schools, a strong transcript and great test scores will get your application noticed, but it's your essays and the personal story that they highlight that will get you admitted. But often students don't know where to start. Teens fret over topics because they don't know what college admissions officers are looking for They bend over backwards to write what they think colleges want to read instead of telling their authentic story which is what admissions officers actually want in a way that will resonate with their readers They also struggle because college essays which are narrative first person and introspective require a different set of skills from academic expository writing they've been learning for years in the classroom Seasoned college admissions expert and educator Eric Tipler has seen this firsthand Teens and their parents spend countless anxiety filled hours crafting and refining essays that are often lackluster In Write Yourself In Tipler meets students where they are and provides comprehensive actionable advice in a warm and conversational tone He demonstrates how to craft a winning essay one that is authentic vulnerable and demonstrative of qualities like personal growth and emotional maturity Instead of formulas Write Yourself In gives students step by step processes for brainstorming outlining writing and revising essays It encourages them to seek out feedback at key points in the process something Tipler has found to be vital to helping students produce their best writing Further the book includes sidebars that teach essential components of good storytelling a secret weapon in the admissions process In addition to the admissions essay Write Yourself In also covers the most common supplemental essays on topics like community diversity openness to others viewpoints and why their school is a good fit for the student scholarship essays as well as scholarship essays Tipler includes sections that address current topics like the widespread use of ChatGPT and the discussion of race in the admissions essay a facet of the student's application that will have newfound importance given the Supreme Court decision on affirmative action Written with both the parent and teen in mind Write Yourself In is the go to handbook for writing a great college essay
