Multinational Enterprises and the Law Peter Muchlinski,2021-02-18 Multinational Enterprises and the Law is the only comprehensive contemporary and interdisciplinary account of the techniques used to regulate multinational enterprises MNEs at the national regional and multilateral levels In addition it considers the effects of corporate self regulation and the impact of civil society and community groups upon the development of the legal order in this area The book has been thoroughly revised and updated for this third edition making it a definitive reference work for students researchers and practitioners of international economic law business corporate and commercial law development studies and international politics Split into four parts the book first deals with the conceptual basis for MNE regulation It explains the growth of MNEs their business and legal forms and the relationship between them and the effects of a globalized economy and society now increasingly challenged by recently revived nationalist economic policies upon the evolution of regulatory agendas in the field. In addition, the limits of national and regional jurisdiction over MNE activities are considered a question that arises throughout the specialized areas of regulation covered in the remainder of the book. Part II covers the main areas of economic regulation including controls over and the liberalization of entry and establishment, tax, company and competition law, and the impact of intellectual property rights on technology diffusion and transfer. A specialized chapter on the regulation of multinational banks in the wake of the global financial crisis is new to this edition. Part III introduces the social dimension of MNE regulation covering labour rights, human rights and environmental issues. Finally, Part IV deals with the contribution of international investment law to MNE regulation and to the control of investment risks, covering the main provisions found in international investment agreements, their interpretation by international tribunals, the process of investor state arbitration and how concerns over these developments are leading to reform proposals.

OECD Investment Policy Reviews: Lao PDR OECD, 2017-07-11 This first OECD Investment Policy Review of Lao PDR uses the OECD Policy Framework for Investment to present an assessment of the investment climate in Lao PDR and to discuss the challenges and opportunities faced by the Government of Lao PDR in its reform efforts. Science, Policy and Development in Africa R.

Sooryamoorthy, 2020-09-03 Since gaining political independence in the 1950s, science has rapidly become a prerequisite for national development within many African nations. Supported by international agencies such as UNESCO, initiatives were taken to direct Africa on the road of scientific development, enabling contributions to world science and significant progress in many specific research areas. However, from a developmental perspective, there remains the question of how science influences national development plans and strategies. How far are science policies integrated into the national development plans? What potential and challenges do science and technology pose for Africa and its prospects for wider development? Offering a comprehensive historical and empirical study of science in both colonial and post colonial Africa, R. Sooryamoorthy brings to light the connections between science policy and development in African nations. Focusing on understanding the widening gap in science and technology between developed and developing regions and the integration or lack of with national development strategies, this study provides important insights into the potential opportunities and challenges facing Africa in the areas of science. Corporate Social Responsibility in Times of Crisis Samuel O. Idowu, Stephen

Vertigans, Adriana Schiopoiu Burlea, 2017-03-27 This book explores national and transnational companies' Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) activities in times and settings in which they are confronted with economic and social challenges and analyzes these situations ranging from the financial crisis to fourth generation sustainability. Presenting a number of different cases from various parts of Europe, North America and Africa, it showcases how companies respond to the challenges of the development consultation, implementation, integration, measurement and consolidation of CSR. Further, it specifies how these corporations deal with uncertainties over corporate and financial resources, global financial stability and growing evidence for climate change The book describes CSR adaptation under challenging circumstances and argues for the strategic and operative legitimization of Corporate Social Responsibility in times of crisis Challenges to African Entrepreneurship in the 21st Century Darko Opoku,Eve Sandberg,2017-10-09 This volume offers an overview of the critical challenges faced by aspiring African entrepreneurs and their coping strategies to sustain and develop their businesses Contributors to this volume detail the constraints placed on African entrepreneurs through rich case studies and challenge African leaders and international donors to review their own behaviors if they hope for African entrepreneurs to succeed Case Studies on Sustainability in the Food Industry Samuel O. Idowu,René Schmidpeter,2022-09-23 The world s population continues to grow year after year putting pressure on all global resources This book provides examples of how we can deal with all the challenges associated with aspects of population growth in the quest for sustainable development It presents case studies on different areas of sustainability in the food industry which includes food production and consumption The collection of illustrative examples includes cases from agriculture and fisheries the food refining sector the supply chain wholesale and retail channels and other relevant aspects that enhance our understanding of how sustainability takes place in this global sector The book will appeal to a wide readership from practitioners to researchers teachers and students worldwide
