Offer Self Image Questionnaire Manual:

The Offer Self-image Questionnaire for Adolescents Daniel Offer, Eric Ostrov, Kenneth Irwin Howard, 1977

Regular Guys Daniel Offer, Marjorie Kaiz Offer, Eric Ostrov, 2008-02-08 One of the few extant longitudinal studies of normal men has the best follow up rate 94% of any longitudinal study of its length ever done Instrumentation in Education Lloyd Bishop, Paula E. Lester, 1993 First Published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Pediatric Psycho-oncology Shulamith Kreitler, Myriam Weyl Ben-Arush, Andrés Martin, 2012-07-02 Like the ground breaking first edition Pediatric Psycho oncology Second edition puts the child at the centre of medical and psychological care It broadens the focus beyond treatment and cure to consider the quality of life of the child and their family Written by an international group of pediatric oncologists and psychologists psycho oncologists brought together by an expert editorial team it focuses on the real life practical aspects of children undergoing treatment for cancer This edition has been restructured and opens with a major section on Active treatment which includes chapters addressing quality of life pain psychosocial aspects of treatment and interventions art therapy and different fantasy based techniques palliative care communication and education as well as a new chapter on psychopharmacology Shorter sections then discuss survivorship and care of the dying child including a new chapter on bereavement The final section comprises new chapters on ethical considerations and on addressing the emotional needs of children whose parents have cancer as well as a case study on international collaboration An appendix provides a comprehensive overview of tools for evaluation and assessment in pediatric psychooncology This book is a highly practical resource that will be invaluable for all health care professionals looking after children and adolescents with cancer Research Relating to Children , 1974-03 Community Series in Body Representation and Interoceptive Awareness: Cognitive, Affective, and Social Implications Simona Raimo, Cecilia Guariglia, Liana Palermo, Matteo Martini, Gabriella Santangelo, Luigi Trojano, 2023-09-13 Predicting Internalizing Problems in At-Risk Children and Adolescents Tawnyea L. Bolme-Lake, 2008-03 Internalizing problems are common among adolescents Poor outcomes such as academic failure substance misuse and adult mental health problems have all been linked to internalizing problems Although the potential effects are serious internalizing disorders tend to be under diagnosed and under treated To compound the problem research in the area of internalizing disorders continues to lag behind that of other disorders In the last ten years however research has indicated that relationships with parents gender and self esteem are factors associated with internalizing disorders To clarify the relationships between these factors archival data was collected from an electronic database in a school district in northeastern Minnesota This database includes the results of the Behavior Assessment System for Children 2 Self Report of Personality BASC 2 of children and adolescents who have taken it as a part of a special education evaluation The BASC 2 is a norm referenced questionnaire that measures emotions and self perceptions Factorial analysis of variance was used determine whether the degree of internalizing problems differ between relationships with parents gender and self esteem groups reflected by scores on the Parent Relations Self Esteem and Internalizing Problems scales included in the BASC 2 Further multiple regression procedures were used to determine if the combination of the quality of relations with parents gender and level of self esteem predicts the degree of internalizing problems experienced by at risk children and adolescents Contrary to past studies results did not show gender significant differences in the degree of internalizing problems reported Results did however indicate that the degree of reported internalizing problems was related to the quality of parent relationships and self esteem Specifically children and adolescents who reported poor relationships with their parents reported a significantly greater degree of internalizing problems than those who reported average or better relationships with their parents Likewise children and adolescents who reported low self esteem reported a significantly greater degree of internalizing problems than those with average or better self esteem In addition gender the quality of parent relations and level of self esteem showed a predictive relationship with internalizing problems The implications of these findings as well as directions for future research were discussed

Girls at Puberty J. Brooks-Gunn,A.C. Peterson,2013-06-29 The publication of this volume at this time appears particularly auspicious Biological psychological and social change is greater during the pubertal years than at any other period since infancy While the past two decades have witnessed a virtual explosion of productive research on the first years of life until recently research on adolescence and particularly on puberty and early adolescence has lagged substantially behind This book provides encouraging evidence that things are changing for the better Considered separately the individual chapters in this book include important contributions to our growing knowledge of the biological mechanisms involved in pubertal onset and subsequent changes as well as of the psychological and social aspects of these changes both as consequences and determinants In this regard the book clearly benefits from the breadth of disciplines represented by the contributors including developmental endocrinology adolescent medicine pediatrics psychology and sociology among others

Plasticity and Regeneration of the Nervous System Paola S. Timiras,Alain M. Privat,Ezio Giacobini,Jean M. Lauder,Antonia Vernadakis,2012-12-06 Proceedings of the Third Conference of the Institute of Developmental Neuroscience and Aging held in Torino Italy April 5 7 1990

Biological-Psychosocial Interactions in Early Adolescence Richard M. Lerner,Terryl T. Foch,2021-11-14 First published in 1987 Biological Psychosocial Interactions in Early Adolescence explores the mutually influential relations between biological and psychosocial variables as the basis for development in the early portions of the adolescent period and in fact across the entire life span The volume introduces key conceptual and methodological issues that are raised by the study of biological psychosocial interrelations It provides key foundations for the research conducted in major laboratories in USA back in 1980s It also provides the results from these laboratories and their progress at that time This book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of psychology behavioural science and sociology
