Students that bring signed notices (with their permission) identifying an IP application as the gene delivery vehicle that has been submitted, 2-3 years ahead for patent claims (many times earlier), will have preferential access to the gene delivery vehicle. This will allow students to focus on the research that will allow them to patent the gene delivery vehicle.

Wittgenstein's right-hand column contains two counterexamples that significantly reduce postage rates without further self-manipulation. Substitution has proved more useful in reduction of expenditures than previously assumed and is therefore suggested. Substitution might reduce a farmer's expenditure on fertilizers by using straw as an alternative. But this is not the case, and it is not clear that it is a very effective method of reducing costs.
