Black Mayors, White Majorities Ravi K. Perry,2014-01-01 Recent years have seen an increase in the number of African Americans elected to political office in cities where the majority of their constituents are not black In the past the leadership of black politicians was characterized as either deracialized or racialized that is as either focusing on politics that transcend race or as making black issues central to their agenda Today many African American politicians elected to offices in non majority black cities are adopting a strategy that universalizes black interests as intrinsically relevant to the needs of their entire constituency In Black Mayors White Majorities Ravi K Perry explores the conditions in which black mayors of majority white cities are able to represent black interests and whether blacks historically high expectations for black mayors are being realized Perry uses Toledo and Dayton Ohio as case studies and his analysis draws on interviews with mayors and other city officials business leaders and heads of civic organizations in addition to official city and campaign documents and newspapers Perry also analyzes mayoral speeches the 2001 ward level election results and city demographics Black Mayors White Majorities encourages readers to think beyond the black white dyad and instead to envision policies that can serve constituencies with the greatest needs as well as the general public The Army Lawyer ,2009

The Sublimity of Document Scott MacDonald,2019-07-01 The Sublimity of Document Cinema as Diorama is a collection of in depth substantive interviews with moving image artists working avant doc that is making films that explore the territory between documentary and experimental cinema The book uses the early history of the museum habitat diorama of animal life specifically the Hall of African Mammals at the American Museum of Natural History as a way of rethinking both early and modern cinema document and especially those recent filmmakers and films that are devoted to providing viewers with panoramic documentations of places and events that otherwise they might never have opportunities to experience in person This international collection of 27 interviews follows on MacDonald s earlier Avant Doc Intersections of Documentary and Avant Garde Cinema Oxford 2015 The interviews organized panoramically within the collection are dense with information and insight and readable by specialists and non specialists alike In most instances these are the most in depth and expansive sometimes the first interviews with these filmmakers Together these interviews offer an engaging panorama of the recent history and geography of cinema devoted to documenting the world around us as well as an in depth look at the challenges and accomplishments of filmmakers willing to go anywhere on the planet or on the internet to document what they believe we need to see MacDonald s general introduction provides an overall context for the collection which includes interviews with Ron Fricke Gustav Deutsch Laura Poitras Fred Wiseman Nikolaus Geyrhalter Bill Morrison Brett Story Abbas Kiarostami Lois Pati o Dominic Gagnon Erin Espelie Yance Ford Janet Biggs Carlos Adriano Craig Johnson

Ben Russell Betzy Bromberg James Benning Maxim Pozdorovkin along with several veterans of Harvard's Sensory Ethnography Lab and with the executive directors of the distributor Documentary Educational Resources which has served the field of independent documentary for nearly fifty years each interview is introduced with MacDonald's overview of the interviewee's life and work The book includes filmographies and selected bibliographies for all the filmmakers
