Chuck Brummel, 2014-03 My storey is about my life I was born in 1939 and my family literally broke apart when I was little I do not recall ever living in a home with my mother and father together There were several years I spent in foster care and then living with Mom and then Dad bouncing back and forth a couple of times until I was a junior in high school My father moved but I didn't I spent my final year in high school living with a local family thanks to a basketball coach who took special interest in me I spent some of my time growing up being a juvenile delinquent petty theft shop lifting drinking smoking and other such irresponsible activities I made a decision to change my life after my freshman year in high school and went to live with my father whom I already knew was a strict disciplinarian and a very controlling individual But I got the chance to start my life over again at age 15 I made the most of my new start and I want to tell my story Children's Bureau Publication United States. The Tragedy of True Crime John J. Lennon, 2025-09-23 In 2001 John J Lennon killed a man on a Brooklyn Street Now he s a journalist working from behind bars trying to make sense of it all The Tragedy of True Crime is a first person journalistic account of the lives of four men who have killed written by a man who has killed Lennon entered the New York prison system with a sentence of 28 years to life but after he stepped into a writing workshop at Attica Correctional Facility his whole life changed Reporting from the cell block and the prison yard Lennon challenges our obsession with true crime by telling the full life stories of men now serving time for the lives they took These men have completely different backgrounds Robert Chambers a preppy Manhattanite turned true crime celebrity Milton E Jones a seventeen year old coaxed from burglary into something far darker and Michael Shane Hale a gay man caught in a crime of passion and all are searching to find meaning and redemption behind bars Lennon s reporting is intertwined with his own story from a young man seduced by the infamous gangster culture of New York City to a celebrated prison journalist The same desire echoes throughout the lives of these four men to become more than murderers A first of its kind book of immersive prison journalism The Tragedy of True Crime poses fundamental questions about the stories we tell and who gets to tell them What essential truth do we lose when we don t consider all that comes before an act of unthinkable violence And what happens to the convicted after the cell gate locks

Walking Wounded Barbara Richard, 2007-05 The story begun in Dancing on His Grave continues as the five Finch girls one by one escape their father s psychopathic abuse only to find themselves cast into the world drastically ill equipped to cope with the demands of adulthood In this sequel the girls find their paths mined with the untruths and denial learned as children and the lack of self esteem or faith in their own abilities In spite of these pitfalls the young women s intelligence determination and love for their children keep them striving toward normalcy At the same time their mother chooses to stay with her husband for seven years after her daughters have all gone and with her classic denial conceals his increasingly psychotic behavior Finally after a severe concussion and a near miss again a month later she flees to her oldest daughter s home and begins the long process of de programming after thirty three years of abuse During her recovery she fulfills a life long dream of graduating from college with a degree in English Meanwhile her husband pursues the path of an alcoholic and two years later remarries Within a few months his new wife disappears It takes the girls over a year to find her back in Las Vegas with a story of a terror filled night when she was convinced he would murder her Walking Wounded attempts to bring the Finch family s story to a reasonable conclusion although the effects of the brutality inflicted on them as children create a life long struggle for the women
