Lindsey A. Freeman, Benjamin Nienass, Rachel Daniell, 2014-02-01 In an age of information and new media the relationships between remembering and forgetting have changed This volume addresses the tension between loud and often spectacular histories and those forgotten pasts we strain to hear Employing social and cultural analysis the essays within examine mnemonic technologies both new and old and cover subjects as diverse as U S internment camps for Japanese Americans in WWII the Canadian Indian Residential School system Israeli memorial videos and the desaparecidos in Argentina Through these cases the contributors argue for a re interpretation of Guy Debord s notion of the spectacle as a conceptual apparatus through which to examine the contemporary landscape of social memory arguing that the concept of spectacle might be developed in an age seen as dissatisfied with the present nervous about the future and obsessed with the past Perhaps now spectacle can be thought of not as a tool of distraction employed solely by hegemonic powers but instead as a device used to answer Walter Benjamin s plea to explode the continuum of history and bring our attention to now time Homeless Advocacy and the Rhetorical Construction of the Civic Home Melanie Loehwing, 2018-10-30 Homeless assistance has frequently adhered to the three hots and a cot model which prioritizes immediate material needs but may fail to address the political and social exclusion of people experiencing homelessness In this study Loehwing reconsiders typical characterizations of homelessness citizenship and democratic community through unconventional approaches to homeless advocacy and assistance While conventional homeless advocacy rhetoric establishes the urgency of homeless suffering it also implicitly invites housed publics to understand homelessness as a state of abnormality that destines the individuals suffering it to life outside the civic body In contrast Loehwing focuses on atypical models of homeless advocacy the meal sharing initiatives of Food Not Bombs the international competition of the Homeless World Cup and the annual Homeless Persons Memorial Day campaign She argues that these modes of unconventional homeless advocacy provide rhetorical exemplars of a type of inclusive and empowering civic discourse that is missing from conventional homeless advocacy and may be indispensable for overcoming homeless marginalization and exclusion in contemporary democratic culture Loehwing s interrogation of homeless advocacy rhetorics demonstrates how discursive practices shape democratic culture and how they may provide a potential civic remedy to the harms of disenfranchisement discrimination and displacement This book will be welcomed by scholars whose work focuses on the intersections of democratic theory and rhetorical and civic studies as well as by homelessness advocacy groups Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1995 Celebrating a Life Faith Moore, 2011-12-01 A guide of alternatives to traditional funerals commemorating lost loved ones in a meaningful personal way Today many people are forgoing the trappings and timeworn rituals of typical funerals and are instead opting to celebrate their loved ones lives With careful planning services like these can truly honor the person who has died and both comfort and uplift those who attend Celebrating a Life offers sensitive guidance on every detail venue food and drink music flowers eulogy program mementoes all with the aim of making sure the memorial service s honoree is remembered just as he or she would have wished Checklists and an extensive resource directory provide much needed help to those who have very little time to make arrangements As author Faith Moore says this book is not about regrets but about reimagining how we say good bye In a caring practical and authoritative way Faith Moore tackles a very difficult topic Her direct and warm advice is a fabulous resource This book is a must read for anyone who will face the inevitability of honoring and celebrating the life of a deceased love one Peggy Post director of the Emily Post Institute and author of Emily Post s Etiquette 17th Edition
