James M. Hargett, 2012-02-16 Located in a remote area of modern Sichuan province Mount Emei is one of China's most famous mountains and has long been important to Buddhists. Stairway to Heaven looks at Emei's significance in Chinese history and literature while also addressing the issue of sense of place in Chinese culture. Mount Emei's exquisite scenery and unique geographical features have inspired countless poets, writers, and artists. Since the early years of the Song dynasty (960-1279) Emei has been best known as a site of Buddhist pilgrimage and worship. Today several Buddhist temples still function on Emei, but the mountain also has become a scenic tourist destination attracting more than a million visitors annually. Author James M. Hargett takes readers on a journey to the mountain through the travel writings of the twelfth-century writer and official Fan Chengda (1126-1193). Fan's diary and verse accounts of his climb to the summit of Mount Emei in 1177 are still among the most informative accounts of the mountain ever written. Through Fan's eyes, words, and footsteps, and with background information and commentary from Hargett, the reader will experience some of the ways Emei has been constructed by diverse human experience over the centuries. Proceedings of the 2024 5th International Conference on Civil, Architecture and Disaster Prevention and Control (CADPC 2024) Peng Liu, Hüseyin Bilgin, Jialing Yang, Bin Hu, 2024-06-13 This is an open access book. 2024 5th International Conference on Civil Architecture and Disaster Prevention and Control (CADPC 2024) will be held during March 8-10, 2024 in Xi'an, China. CADPC 2024 focuses on construction technology, disaster prediction, disaster prevention and control, and post-disaster reconstruction. The conference will provide a platform for scholars from universities at home and abroad, researchers, and engineers to share research results and cutting-edge technologies. All attendees will get the chance to know about updated academic trends, develop new ways of thinking, improve academic research and discussions, and promote industrialization of research findings. New Pathways of Rural Education in China Jialing Han, 2024-03-31 This book summarizes and explores the development model and path of rural education in China while also describing how small-scale schools can replicate this low-cost local experience. As the nerve endings of the Chinese education system, rural small-scale schools have unique important values in guaranteeing equity in education and serving the compulsory education in rural areas. This book presents ten vivid stories of the transforming path of rural small-scale schools in China. It shows how the rural small-scale schools acted according to circumstances to enhance education quality, how they broke through the difficult situation and improved, and how they achieved the status of small and beautiful and small and good. It explores a new path for rural education reform and aims to provide some inspirations on rural and urban education development.

The Zen of Creativity John Daido Loori, 2005-05-31 For many of us the return of Zen conjures up images of rock gardens and gently flowing waterfalls We think of mindfulness and meditation immersion in a state of being where meaning is found through simplicity Zen lore has been absorbed by Western practitioners and pop culture alike yet there is a specific area of this ancient tradition that hasn't been fully explored in the West Now in The Zen of Creativity American Zen master John Daido Loori presents a book that taps the principles of the Zen arts and aesthetic as a means to unlock creativity and find freedom in the various dimensions of our existence Loori dissolves the barriers between art and spirituality opening up the possibility of meeting life with spontaneity grace and peace Zen Buddhism is steeped in the arts In spiritual ways calligraphy poetry painting the tea ceremony and flower arranging can point us toward our essential boundless nature Brilliantly interpreting the teachings of the artless arts Loori illuminates various elements that awaken our creativity among them still point the center of each moment that focuses on the tranquility within simplicity in which the creative process is uncluttered and unlimited like a cloudless sky spontaneity a way to navigate through life without preconceptions with a freshness in which everything becomes new mystery a sense of trust in the unknown creative feedback the systematic use of an audience to receive noncritical input about our art art koans exercises based on paradoxical questions that can be resolved only through artistic expression Looi shows how these elements interpenetrate and function not only in art but in all our endeavors Beautifully illustrated and punctuated with poems and reflections from Looi's own spiritual journey The Zen of Creativity presents a multilayered bottomless source of insight into our creativity Appealing equally to spiritual seekers artists and veteran Buddhist practitioners this book is perfect for those wishing to discover new means of self awareness and expression and to restore equanimity and freedom amid the vicissitudes of our lives Echoes of Chongqing Danke Li,2010 The voices of ordinary women in China's War of Resistance against Japan The CDD Pilot Project in the People's Republic of China Asian Development Bank,2012-06-01 This report summarizes the experience and lessons learned in a community driven development pilot project in the People's Republic of China from 2006 to 2009 The involvement of government and nongovernment organizations innovative project implementation mechanisms capacity building and targeting of vulnerable groups were all instrumental in the success of the project which had a positive impact on individual and community well being on the provision of local government services and in reducing poverty The report also discusses challenges that arose during the project that will have to be addressed before the community driven development approach is more widely implemented in the country and elsewhere in Asia From Family to Market Fei-Ling Wang,1998 This book analyzes Chinese history politics and economic development through the lens of labor allocation within the world's largest workforce Capturing the peculiarities continuities and changes in the PRC's institutional structure Fei Ling Wang examines the segmented nature of China's labor force today He points to the rare coexistence of four labor allocation patterns the traditional family based system authoritarian state allocation community based labor markets and the emerging national labor market China's enduringly stable yet backward institutional structure was based firmly on a mix of family and state institutions now the addition of market forces highlights the PRC's transitional state Bolstered with rich case study detail and Chinese source material this study argues that the development of labor allocation patterns will profoundly influence China's political and economic development in the coming century Coordinated Eco-environmental Governance in Yangtze River Economic Belt—Based on the Practice of Tributary Jialing River Basin Luo Zhigao,Yang Jirui,2024-12-30 The Yangtze River is the mother river of Chinese civilization and Yangtze River Economic Belt became China's national strategy in 2013 emphasizing ecological priority and green sustainable development Ever since the research on the green transformation and development of Yangtze River Economic Belt has boomed at home and abroad Yet there was little systematic research on the green development of the tributaries of the Yangtze River As the largest tributary of the upper reaches of the Yangtze River the Jialing River's eco environmental governance is crucial for the construction of Yangtze River Economic Belt as a pioneer demonstration belt of China's ecological civilization So this book introduces the discourses of state leaders on eco environmental construction reviews the existing mechanisms of coordinated eco environmental governance in river basins in China and summarizes the achievements of coordinated eco environmental governance in Yangtze River Economic Belt Then it studies Jialing River Basin s coordinated eco environmental governance measures ecological industrialization industrial ecologization development environment economy society coupling development ecological pressure and etc Additionally this book compares the coordinated eco environmental governance of the Wujiang River Basin another tributary of the Yangtze River and the Thames Basin in the UK On this basis a networked eco environmental governance mode and implementation path in the Jialing River Basin are proposed

Sharing Archaeology Peter Stone,Zhao Hui,2014-08-13 As a discipline Archaeology has developed rapidly over the last half century The increase in so called public archaeology with its wide range of television programming community projects newspaper articles and enhanced site based interpretation has taken archaeology from a closed academic discipline of interest to a tiny minority to a topic of increasing interest to the general public This book explores how archaeologists share information with specialists from other disciplines working within archaeology other archaeologists and a range of non specialist groups It emphasises that to adequately address contemporary levels of interest in their subject archaeologists must work alongside and trust experts with an array of different skills and specializations Drawing on case studies from eleven countries Sharing Archaeology explores a wide range of issues raised as the result of archaeologists communication both within and outside the discipline Examining best practice with wider implications and uses beyond the specified case studies the chapters in this book raise questions as well as answers provoking a critical evaluation of how best to interact with varied audiences and enhance sharing of archaeology Workers at War Joshua H. Howard,2004-09-29 This book focuses on the lives struggles and contrasting perspectives of the 60 000 workers military administrators and technical staff employed in the largest most strategic industry of the Nationalist government the armaments industry based in the wartime capital Chongqing The author argues that China s arsenal workers participated in three interlocked conflicts between 1937 and 1953 a war of national liberation a civil war and a class war The work adds to the scholarship on the Chinese revolution which has previously focused primarily on rural China showing how workers alienation from the military officers directing the arsenals eroded the legitimacy of the Nationalist regime and how the Communists mobilized working class support in Chongqing Moreover in emphasizing the urban working class and nationalist components of the 1949 revolution the author demonstrates the multiple sources of workers identities and thus challenges previous studies that have exclusively stressed workers particularistic or regional identities

Holding up Half the Sky Shirley Mow,Tao Jie,Zheng Bijun,2004-04-01 These 21 dynamic articles by Chinese women scholars explore the limitations on women s lives in premodern China detail their involvement in the great political movements of the 20th century and examine how new laws have improved women s status yet have left them open to exploitation as China enters the global economy With statistics and reports otherwise unavailable they give a refreshing outlook on China s women that is breathtaking both for the problems it confronts and for the spirit of struggle it embodies

Qarakhanid Roads to China

Dilnoza Duturaeva, 2022-02-28 Qarakhanid Roads to China reconsiders the diplomacy trade and geography of transcontinental networks between Central Asia and China from the 10th to the 12th centuries and challenges the concept of the Silk Road crisis in the period between the fall of the Tang Dynasty and the rise of the Mongols Utilizing a broad range of Islamic and Chinese primary sources together with archaeological data Dilnoza Duturaeva demonstrates the complexity of interaction along the Silk Roads and beyond that revolutionizes our understanding of the Qarakhanid world and Song era China's relations with neighboring regions
