The Archaeology of Wild Birds in Britain and Ireland Dale Serjeantson, 2023-06-29 The Archaeology of Wild Birds in Britain and Ireland tells the story of human engagement with birds from the end of the last Ice Age to about AD 1650 It is based on archaeological bird remains integrated with ethnography and the history of birds and avian biology In addition to their food value the book examines birds in ritual activities and their capture and role in falconry and as companion animals It is an essential guide for archaeologists and zooarchaeologists and will interest historians and naturalists concerned with the history and former distribution of birds Confucian Perspectives on Learning and Self-Transformation Roland

Reichenbach, Duck-Joo Kwak, 2020-05-18 This book bridges the regions of East Asia and the West by offering a detailed and critical inquiry of educational concepts of the East Asian tradition It provides educational thinkers and practitioners with alternative resources and perspectives for their educational thinking to enrich their educational languages and to promote the recognition of educational thoughts from different cultures and traditions across a global world The key notions of Confucian and Neo Confucian philosophy directly concern the ideals processes and challenges of learning education and self transformation which can be seen as the western equivalences of liberal education including the German concept of Bildung All the topics in the book are of fundamental interest across diverse cultures giving a voice to a set of long lasting and yet differentiated cultural traditions of learning and education and thereby creating a common space for critical philosophical reflection of one s own educational tradition and practice The book is especially timely given that the vocabularies in educational discourse today have been dominantly West centred for a long time even while the whole world has become more and more diverse across races religions and cultures It offers a great opportunity to philosophers of education for their cross cultural understanding and self understanding of educational ideas and practices on both personal and institutional levels

Popular Photography ,1991-01 Women and Work in Premodern Europe Merridee L. Bailey,Tania M. Colwell,Julie Hotchin,2018-05-20 This book re evaluates and extends understandings about how work was conceived and what it could entail for women in the premodern period in Europe from c 1100 to c 1800 It does this by building on the impressive growth in literature on women s working experiences and by adopting new interpretive approaches that expand received assumptions about what constituted work for women While attention to the diversity of women s contributions to the economy has done much to make the breadth of women s experiences of labour visible this volume takes a more expansive conceptual approach to the notion of work and considers the social and cultural dimensions in which activities were construed and valued as work This interdisciplinary collection thus advances concepts of work that encompass cultural activities in addition to more traditional economic understandings of work as employment or labour for production The chapters reconceptualise and explore work for women by asking how the working lives of historical women were enacted and represented and analyse the relationships that shaped women s experiences of work across the European premodern period
