Between a Witch and a Hard Place Celia Roman,2021-11-30 Twelve years ago my mother a powerful chaos witch walked out on me and my twin brother without a backward glance We didn t hear another word out of her until a vampire walked into my brother Nick's bar wanting me to track her down. She'd disappeared into thin air and he insisted that I was the only one who could find her. Of course I refused. How could I not? Disappearing was Mom's wheelhouse and after she'd disappeared on us, I never wanted to see her again. Then members of the local supernatural community started turning up dead and Nick was fingered as the suspect. With his life on the line, I had to make a choice: throw everything I had at finding the real culprit and maybe our mother or be forced to watch while the local werewolf pack tore Nick limb from limb as punishment for a crime he didn't commit.

Japanese Inward Investment in UK Car Manufacturing Young-Chan Kim, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2002. This compelling text provides fresh insight into an area that is often touched upon but rarely examined in any great detail: the relationship between Multinational Enterprises (MNEs) and their host governments. Taking Japanese Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) strategy, arguably the model of FDI, Young Chan Kim takes a revealing look at why the United Kingdom (UK) has dominated among the EU member states for FDI destination while ironically losing its nationalized car manufacturers. Scholars of business history, international business and business economics will find this work invaluable.

Towards a New Map of Automobile Manufacturing in Europe? Ray Hudson, Eike W. Schamp, 2012-12-06 This book is the product of four years of collaborative work within the framework of the European Science Foundation's Regional and Urban Restructuring in Europe RURE programme With one exception all of the chapters have been prepared by participants in RURE the exception being that commissioned from Conti and Enrietti on Fiat and Italy to provide a fuller coverage of changes in the main automobile producing companies and countries of Europe A perhaps the central theme around which the RURE programme was conceived is that the restructuring of the production system lies at the heart of the changing map of Europe Equally it continues to be the case that the automobile industry lies at the cutting edge of the search for viable new models of production Some eighty years ago the automobile industry occupied a pivotal position in the transition from craft to mass production indeed Fordism came to denote not just a particular micro economic model of production organisation in the factory but a macro scale model of economic development characterized by a particular pattern of relations between mass production mass consumption and national state regulation From the late 1960s however it became increasingly clear that Fordism as a macro scale model of advanced capitalist development was reaching its limits
