What Dogs Know Juliane Bräuer,Juliane Kaminski,2022-02-09 My dog understands me At least many dog owners think so New scientific studies actually show that dogs understand a lot about us humans For example they can figure out what humans can and cannot see Some dogs can even distinguish large numbers of toys by name like Rico the internationally famous Border collie But do dogs also understand our emotions Can they grasp cause and effect relationships What fascinates us humans about dogs Is it only the proverbial puppy dog eyes that make dogs look sympathetic Or is it the fact that these animals have grown very well attuned to humans and are willing to cooperate with them In a total of ten chapters Juliane Bräuer and Juliane Kaminski present the results of the most important scientific studies of the last twenty years on dog cognition

How Our Love of Dogs Creates Social Conflict James K. Beggan,2022-09-07 For the last twenty thousand years dogs and people have shared a unique bond in the animal kingdom In How Our Love of Dogs Creates Social Conflict James K Beggan uses symbolic interaction to examine the meaning that dogs have for people as friends and family members Although many animal rights advocates express dismay over the subordinate status ownership implies the author argues that ownership creates a powerful psychological connection that makes it easier for people to imbue dogs with humanlike characteristics Beggan outlines how dogs sensitivity to inequity in combination with a high degree of cognitive capacity makes it possible for dogs to be active agents in creating conflict between people The author s analysis of social conflict between people over their dogs connects to profound philosophical concepts about the nature of mind the relationship between humans and animals and the moral responsibility human beings have to dogs and other animals
