1. According to the introduction, what stereotypical image is Satrapi trying to dispel? - correct answer She is trying to dispel that image of all Iranians are fundamentalists, fanatics, or terrorists.

2. The author indicates two motives for writing Persepolis. What are they? - correct answer 1) She believes that an entire nation should not be judged by the wrongdoings of a few extremists.

2) She also does not want the Iranians who died in prisons defending freedom, those who died in the war against Iraq, those suffering under repressive regimes, or those who were forced to leave their families and flee their homeland to be forgotten.

3. When does the novel begin? - correct answer 1980 - the year that we are introduced to Marjane

1979 - the year that the Islamic Revolution took place

4. What were the two outcomes of the Islamic Revolution? - correct answer 1980 - The veil became mandatory at school

All bilingual schools were closed down

5. In what ways does the children's response to the veil reflect a universal truth about society? - correct answer The children don't understand why they have to wear the veil. They just follow the orders from their teachers. This may be an indicator that many people do not truly understand the significance or importance of wearing the veil.
