The Zuma Years Richard Calland, 2013-08-16 The face of power in South Africa is rapidly changing for better and for worse The years since Thabo Mbeki was swept aside by Jacob Zuma's coalition of the wounded have been especially tumultuous with the rise and fall of populist politicians such as Julius Malema the terrible events at Marikana and the embarrassing Guptagate scandal What lies behind these developments How does the Zuma presidency exercise its power Who makes our foreign policy What goes on in cabinet meetings What is the state of play in the Alliance is the SACP really more powerful than before And as the landscape shifts what are the opposition's prospects In The Zuma Years Richard Calland attempts to answer these questions and more by holding up a mirror to the new establishment by exploring how people such as Malema Chief Justice Mogoeng Mogoeng and DA parliamentary leader Lindiwe Mazibuko have risen so fast by examining key drivers of transformation in South Africa such as the professions and the universities and by training a spotlight on the toxic mix of money and politics The Zuma Years is a fly on the wall insider's approach to the people who control the power that affects us all It takes you along the corridors of government and corporate power mixing solid research with vivid anecdote and interviews with key players The result is an accessible yet authoritative account of who runs South Africa and how today

The Place and the Writer Marshall Moore, Sam Meekings, 2021-04-08 The combined experience of authors throughout the ages offers a wealth of valuable information about the practice of creative writing However such lore can also be problematic for students and practitioners as it can be inherently additive making it difficult to abandon processes that do not work This adherence to lore also tends to be a US centric endeavor In order to take a nuanced approach to the uses and limitations of lore The Place and the Writer offers a global perspective on creative writing pedagogy that has yet to be fully explored Featuring a diverse array of cultural viewpoints from Brazil to Hong Kong Finland to South Africa this book explores the ongoing international debate about the best approaches for teaching and practicing creative writing Marshall Moore and Sam Meekings challenge areas of perceived wisdom that persist in the field of creative writing including aesthetics and politics in institutionalized creative writing the process of workshopping tuition and talent anxiety in the classroom unifying theory and lore and teaching creative writing in languages other than English
