How the West was Written Brian Brennan,2006 How the West Was Written is published to celebrate the centenary of James H Gray s birth He was born on 31 August 1906 James H Gray was the first Canadian social historian to tackle such previously taboo subjects as the sex lives and boozing habits of the early settlers His books were on the national and Toronto Star bestseller lists before those of Pierre Berton and have since become classics of Canadian literature Gray's Red Lights on the Prairies stunned readers with its straight forward approach to prostitution on the prairies and was named one of the one hundred most important Canadian books of all time by the Literary Review of Canada In this first ever biography of Gray Brian Brennan covers aspects of the Gray story including His early poverty stricken years during WWI in Winnipeg His working career as an office boy brokerage firm employee and budding entrepreneur and gambler who invested in racehorses a candy business that went broke and a miniature golf course His 12 year career with the Free Press where he could write like hell and was afraid of no one which ended abruptly when he became the only reporter in history to be fired as a result of policy disagreement with his editor How he accepted a public relations job at Home Oil to promote a Canadian pipeline project and when that project evaporated redirected his energies into writing best selling histories that produced sales of 400 000 and brought the high school dropout three honorary doctorates the Order of Canada and the Pierre Berton Award for distinguished achievement in popularizing Canadian history Brennan draws on information gleaned from interviews with Gray family members and associates from Gray's books his newspaper articles research papers correspondence and diaries Brennan covers the Gray story with engaging wit and impressive authority Canadian Books in Print ,2003 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975

Canadian Book Review Annual Joyce M. Wilson,2003 Hokkaido Dairy Farm Paul Hansen,2024-02-01 Hokkaido Dairy Farm offers a historical and ethnographic examination of the rapid industrialization of the dairy industry in Tokachi Hokkaido It begins with a history of dairy farming and consumption in Hokkaido from a macro perspective mapping the transition from survival to subsistence and then from mixed family farms to monoculture and mega industrial operations It then narrows the focus to examine concrete changes in a Tokachi area dairying community that has undergone rapid sociocultural upheaval over the last three decades with shifts in human relationships alongside changes in human and cow connections through new technologies In the final chapters the scope is further narrowed to a detailed history and ethnography of a single industrializing dairy farm and the morphing cast of individuals attached to it centering on their idiosyncratic searches for economic social and even ontological security in what is popularly considered a peripheral region and industry The culmination of over fifteen years of ethnographic policy and historical research Hokkaido Dairy Farm argues that the dairy industry in Japan has always been entwined with notions of Otherness and security seeking notably in terms of frontiers Alberta Law Review ,2014 Index de Périodiques Canadiens ,2002 Quill & Quire ,2003

American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Boondoggles, Bonanzas, and Other Alberta Stories Brian Brennan,2003 With three Alberta bestsellers under his belt Brian Brennan certainly knows how to find and tell a good story His previous books have awakened a passion for quirky local biographies and history in Albertans In his latest collection he focuses on events rather than individuals and offers a new feast of strange and wonderful tales from Alberta's past While many of the events in this book may be familiar the Frank Slide the Edmonton tornado the Leduc oil discovery Calgary's first Grey Cup win Brennan approaches them all from a new angle uncovering interesting new details characters and stories Other stories are less familiar like why Father Lacombe s preserved heart was kept under lock and key for more than seventy five years by a group of nuns Or how a group of single male ranchers in Dorothy AB become the romantic targets of women from around the world Or what the connection was between Rudyard Kipling and Medicine Hat AB Always entertaining and often surprising Boondoggles Bonanzas and Other Alberta Stories celebrates the ups and downs triumphs and scams of Canada s most independent province

The Good Steward Brian Brennan, 2008 The first book length biography of Ernest Manning the longest serving premier of Alberta who directed the transformation of the province from Depression era poverty to modern oil based affluence Brian Brennan traces the story of a poor farm boy from Saskatchewan with little formal education who rose to become one of the most successful politicians in Western Canadian history while simultaneously attaining long lasting success as the director of Canada s National Back to the Bible Hour radio program Drawing extensively from a series of oral history interviews Manning did for the University of Alberta archives after he left provincial politics from an unpublished memoir written by his wife Muriel from interviews with family members former colleagues and others and from the various books and articles written about the rise and fall of the Social Credit in Alberta Brennan tells how Manning

- 1 Left the farm as a teenager after hearing William Aberhart preaching the Bible on the radio and moved to Calgary with the intention of becoming a minister of the gospel
- 2 Became Aberhart s full time assistant helping run the Prophetic Bible Institute and participating in his radio broadcasts
- 3 Helped Aberhart organize study groups around the province to make Albertans aware of the social credit monetary reform theories of an English economist named Major Clifford Douglas
- 4 Coordinated the initiative to turn Social Credit from an educational into a political movement when the ruling United Farmers of Alberta refused to adopt its economic policies
- 5 Stage managed the successful 1935 provincial election campaign that saw Social Credit swept to power with fifty six of sixty three seats and at age twenty six became the youngest cabinet minister in the British Empire
