Rogers' Theory on Science of Unitary Human Beings

Nursing theories form the foundation of nursing philosophy that guides nurses in the provision of quality patient care. Moreover, nurses have the professional obligation to systematically search scientific information as a basis for evidence on care delivery. Individual patient characteristics determine the course of care consistent with the nursing profession doctrine of patient-centered care. Nurses must possess analytical skills for critical evaluation of a patient's health status to inform clinical decision-making. However, nursing theories provide a framework that shapes the overall conduct of nurses in clinical practice. Therefore, the discussion of Martha Rogers'...
