

Lectors

Lectors serve our faithful community by proclaiming the readings from the Scripture during our liturgies. A thoughtful and prayerful presentation of by our lectors helps open the hearts and minds of our community to God's Word. We also hope our lectors are able to awaken the faithful by demonstrating their own faith as they proclaim and live the faith themselves.

Roman Catholic Lector Guide 2015:

Notes and Queries, 1909 A Guide to Formation Advising for Seminary Faculty Edward J. McCormack, 2020-08-20

The future of the Church depends in part on forming future priests and ministers who are ready to accompany, lead and love the People of God. Formation advising is one important part of that work. A Guide to Formation Advising for Seminarians Seminary Faculty offers a practical guide to formation advising as a ministry of accompaniment, participation and evaluation. Deacon Edward McCormack offers a comprehensive introduction to the ministry of formation advising for seminarians studying for priestly ministry. These volumes are for men and women who are new to the ministry of formation advising. The recent Vatican guidelines for seminary formation call for professional accompaniment of seminarians throughout their formation. This book explains in concrete detail how to do this through the entire formation process. Beginning with an overview of the formation process, A Guide to Formation Advising for Seminarians Seminary Faculty explains the role of the formation advisor and the skills required for that ministry. It describes the various ways the formation advisor accompanies a person through the formation process. McCormack also provides concrete suggestions for how to promote in seminarians active participation in the process. Formators will also find explanation of the evaluation process with a style sheet and examples of written evaluations. The handbook contains an annotated bibliography on all the major topics a formation advisor comes across.

Can You Be a Catholic and a Feminist? Julie Hanlon Rubio, 2024. Is it possible to reconcile Catholic and feminist identities? Julie Hanlon Rubio argues that it is, but only if we rethink how women and men who experience the pull of feminism and Catholicism can credibly claim both identities.

The "Hand of God" at Work in Adult Catholic Priestly Formation Robert L. Anello, MSA, 2015-03-06. Fr. Eusebio M. Marnard O.F.M. was gifted with a visionary perspective regarding God's call to adults for ministry in the Catholic Church, specifically priestly vocations. In the mid 1940s Marnard proposed an innovative idea for training men called to serve God through the priesthood: college seminaries for belated vocations. As he defined it, a man with a belated vocation had not heard God's call in his early years or, having heard it, did not or could not act upon it at that time. The events leading to the formation and development of Holy Apostles College Seminary proved challenging and at times painful for those people who joined Marnard in this enterprise. Still, it appeared from the start that the Hand of God was truly at work in the concept, acquisition and development of Holy Apostles. This study documents the founding and initial development of Holy Apostles and highlights several significant events from the first forty years of its service to the Catholic Church.

Walking Together on the Way: Learning to Be the Church - Local, Regional, Universal, 2018-12-06 Walking Together on the Way is the first agreed statement of the third phase of the Anglican Roman Catholic International Commission and the first ARCIC agreed statement since 2005 The language of walking together is used by both Archbishop Justin Welby and Pope Francis to describe our ecclesial life and the ecumenical journey Both have also in different ways endorsed the approach of receptive ecumenism that we have much to learn and much to receive from each other In Walking Together on the Way the Commission asks what Anglicans and Catholics can learn from one another to make us better able to walk together in the way of communion Both our communions have an understanding that all the baptized share in the threefold office of Christ as prophet priest and king The document considers how this common understanding is lived out in our processes of governance and discernment at the local regional and global levels The Commission not only examines our respective ecclesial processes of discernment but also seeks to identify the tensions and difficulties we experience it asks where Anglicans and Catholics can look to one another for wisdom In this way the Commission proposes we can grow together through a journey of mutual enrichment As the text affirms We are pilgrims together walking on the way of penitence and renewal towards full communion

Sinews of Empire Eivind Seland,Hakon Teigon,2017-06-30 A recent surge of interest in network approaches to the study of the ancient world has enabled scholars of the Roman Empire to move beyond traditional narratives of domination resistance integration and fragmentation This relational turn has not only offers tools to identify map visualize and in some cases even quantify interaction based on a variety of ancient source material but also provides a terminology to deal with the everyday ties of power trade and ideology that operated within below and beyond the superstructure of imperial rule Thirteen contributions employ a range of quantitative qualitative and descriptive network approaches in order to provide new perspectives on trade communication administration technology religion and municipal life in the Roman Near East and adjacent regions
