The Brass Ring William Fears, 2002-02-15 The Memoirs of Senator William E Fears Jr None of Alfred B Fear s children wives or relatives were formally educated except a couple of years in a one room school house and a whole lot of hard knock experience Earl Jr knows little of this except he was born in a one room log house built on the Fear s farm but his family got enough to eat so that he wasn t brain damaged too early Aunt Myrtle was a beautifully structured woman and somehow got to New York City took some kind of secretarial course and found a secretarial job She was intelligent and learned to speak read and write proper English She also learned the proper social amenities of the time Somehow she met and married a United States Military Academy graduate named Frederick E Humphreys

Learning from the Federal Market?Based Reforms William J. Mathis, Tina M. Trujillo, 2016-06-01 Over the past twenty years educational policy has been characterized by top down market focused policies combined with a push toward privatization and school choice The new Every Student Succeeds Act continues along this path though with decision making authority now shifted toward the states These market based reforms have often been touted as the most promising response to the challenges of poverty and educational disenfranchisement But has this approach been successful Has learning improved Have historically low scoring schools turned around or have the reforms had little effect Have these narrow conceptions of schooling harmed the civic and social purposes of education in a democracy This book presents the evidence Drawing on the work of the nation s most prominent researchers the book explores the major elements of these reforms as well as the social political and educational contexts in which they take place It examines the evidence supporting the most common school improvement strategies school choice reconstitutions or massive personnel changes and school closures From there it presents the research findings cutting across these strategies by addressing the evidence on test score trends teacher evaluation miracle schools the Common Core State Standards school choice the newly emerging school improvement industry and re segregation among others The weight of the evidence indisputably shows little success and no promise for these reforms Thus the authors counsel strongly against continuing these failed policies The book concludes with a review of more promising avenues for educational reform including the necessity of broader societal investments for combatting poverty and adverse social conditions While schools cannot single handedly overcome societal inequalities important work can take place within the public school system with evidence based interventions such as early childhood education detracking adequate funding and full service community schools all intended to renew our nation s commitment to democracy and equal educational opportunity

Social Credit Vincent Brussee,2023-05-30 China s Social Credit System has fundamentally re shaped global notions of surveillance making it into European Union legislation and hundreds of media headlines Drawing on a rich body of empirical evidence this book offers one of the first comprehensive assessments of this infamous system from its fragmented implementation to its implications for both human rights and the market order Surprisingly it illustrates even China s government is confused about this messy initiative Separating fact from fiction Social Credit is an invaluable resource for anyone interested in technology governance and surveillance in China and beyond

Claiming the Dream Margaret Edds,1990 Edds tells the dramatic story of how the complex issues of abortion and race produced a suspense filled campaign that was decided by only the narrowest of margins the election of a black man as governor of Virginia The Publishers Weekly ,1910 Forest and Stream ,1886 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1948 Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series ,1948 The record of each copyright registration listed in the Catalog includes a description of the work copyrighted and data relating to the copyright claim the name of the copyright claimant as given in the application for registration the copyright date the copyright registration number etc Finding List of English Prose Fiction in the Chicago Public Library ,1911 Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ... Wherein the Copyright Has Been Completed by the Deposit of Two Copies in the Office Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1947 Includes index Wilder Donald P. Baker,1989 Washington Post journalist Baker has written an unauthorized biography of Wilder who recently became the first black to be elected governor of an American state Virginia Baker relies heavily on interviews with Wilder his family and friends and other Virginia political leaders The portrait of Wilder that emerges is that of a talented campaigner a more skillful builder of rainbow coalitions than Jessie Jackson and a person without well defined policy and ideological orientations Unfortunately the text is divided into so many short chapters 52 that continuity suffers and it concludes during the early stages of Wilder s 1989 gubernatorial campaign and thus does not fully explore that historic election Nonetheless the book is balanced and generally well written As such it is recommended for public and university libraries Thomas H Ferrell Univ of Southwestern Louisiana Lafayette
