

A Winter's Drive

by RoadWorker

It was raining now. The first rainstorm of the season had just begun, the rain falling in a steady, rhythmic pattern. The rain was not heavy, but it was enough to make the streets glisten. The rain was not cold, but it was enough to make the air feel fresh. The rain was not noisy, but it was enough to make the world feel alive. The rain was not just a weather phenomenon, it was a part of the world. The rain was a reminder that the world was still here, still breathing, still living. The rain was a gift from the sky, a gift that we should all appreciate. The rain was a sign that the world was still here, still breathing, still living. The rain was a gift from the sky, a gift that we should all appreciate.
