

summer learning

- Summer story brainstorming and word pages
- Crayons, colored pencils, markers, etc.

- Show the example with your child (be quiet in the car to go to the park or a library). After that we get in the car to head out. Tell your child: "I wish, they knew the events in the story to head out. They would know the good when we walked we thought to get out when we're outside then when they knew the events about we got back in the car when it was time to go we got back in the car and drove home."
- Ask your child if they can think of their own summer stories that have lots of details. Just like the example, they ask your child what they know about the format of a comic (such as in comic books or secondary words, conversations, text, etc.)
- Tell the your child that they will be writing about their own summer stories... come back after they will need to think of a story that has several things that happened during their story.
- Tell the children that first they need to come up with their summer story comic. Have your child sit out for 10-15 minutes. Summer Storywriting Prompt: Think of 2-3 ideas for their summer story. Write them down. Focus on...
- Once they have chosen one story comic, using the size...
