Blackstone's Police Operational Handbook 2013: Law Police National Legal Database (PNLD),2012-09-13

Blackstone's Police Operational Handbook 2013 is designed specifically to meet the reference needs of officers while out on patrol. Written in a concise and accessible style it covers a wide range of common offences and clearly explains and interprets the relevant legislation. Using clear and consistent presentation throughout each chapter offers you a definition of the offence, the points to prove and a clear system of icons covering police powers and mode of trial. At a glance you can access everything you need to make a quick informed decision in a host of everyday policing situations. The seventh edition of this highly regarded and successful Handbook is fully updated to include all recent legislative developments and further changes to the law including Police Reform Social Responsibility Act 2011, the Education Act 2011, the Crime and Security Act 2010 and the Policing and Crime Act 2009. The book also includes information on domestic violence and anti-social behaviour orders plus further updated guidance in other areas of law from the Home Office Ministry of Justice Circulars. Whatever your role, police patrol officer, supervisor, student police officer, PCSO or Special Constable, this is an invaluable tool for operational personnel.

Blackstone's Police Operational Handbook: Practice and Procedure Clive Harfield,2009-08-27 This practical handbook offers guidance on good practice in core policing areas. It draws together practical advice across a wide range of police duties along with extracts and explanations of official policy and guidance from ACPO, the National Policing Improvement Agency and the National Centre for Policing Excellence.

Blackstone's Police Operational Handbook: Practice and Procedure Clive Harfield,2009-08-27 This practical handbook follows the successful flexicover format of Blackstone's Police Operational Handbook and is designed to complement that publication by offering guidance on good practice in core policing areas. Aimed at junior patrol officers, student officers and trainee detectives, it draws together practical advice across a wide range of police duties along with extracts and explanations of official policy and guidance from ACPO, the National Policing Improvement Agency and the National Centre for Policing Excellence. The Handbook provides guidance on a structured approach to police work based on established national principles and practices and is divided into four parts: Evidence Management which offers advice on the capture and handling of evidence with chapters on crime scene management, disclosure, witness and victim management and court procedure; Knowledge based Policing which outlines the National Intelligence Model, the Police Code of Conduct, ACPO values, human rights, planning and risk management and dealing with the media; Neighbourhood Policing which covers the principles and team structures, partnerships, problem solving techniques and crime prevention; and Protective Services Policing which looks at the role of the first responder in major incident response, major crime and civil contingencies. Commentary is accompanied with features such as boxed examples, checklists, diagrams, practical tips and flow charts to aid reader's grasp of the issues.

The Law of Pre-Trial Criminal Procedure in Namibia Mapaure, Clever, Ndjodi, M.L.,2016-01-29 The Namibian Constitution entrenches fundamental rights and freedoms and provides for their vertical and horizontal application in any criminal process. However, since Independence in 1990, Namibia has developed its own criminal jurisprudence. Criminal procedure and law are taking new shape. Namibian courts have pronounced on criminal issues and legislation has been passed to keep up with the demands, aspirations, spirit and vision of the Namibian Constitution and its people. CLEVER MAPAURE NDJODI NDEUNYEMA PILISANO MASAKE FESTUS WEYULU and LOIDE SHAPARARA have written an invaluable book that deals with these developments. It explains the rights of individuals, the duties of law enforcement officers and the procedures of the courts in criminal cases. The Law of Pre Trial Criminal Procedure in Namibia introduces readers to the fundamental principles and values underlying Namibian criminal law through a systematic examination of the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Act 1977 Act No 51 of 1977 as amended, which was originally passed by the legislature of South Africa and still regulates criminal procedure in Namibia, the amendments to it since 1990 and relevant Namibian Case Law. The book captures and discusses the law relating to the pre trial criminal process in Namibia in detail from the roles of the prosecutor and the police, search, seizure and forfeiture, interrogation, notices and summons, arrest, court appearance, bail, criminal charges, disclosure, diminished capacity, right to assistance to pleas and plea bargaining. Blackstone's Police Operational Handbook Police National Legal Database (PNLD), 2007. This is the second fully updated edition of the highly successful Blackstone's Operational Handbook. This compact and portable resource has been specifically designed to meet the reference needs of police officers while out on patrol. The book clearly explains and interprets the relevant legislation and powers of arrest, points to prove, practical considerations and related cases. Easy to access and navigate, the Handbook covers over 100 common offenses in the areas of general crime, assaults, drugs, sexual offenses, public disorder, licensing and road traffic. It is written in a concise and accessible style with a clearly structured format and handy icons to aid consultation. It covers a wide range of common offenses and clearly explains and interprets the relevant legislation. At a glance, you can access everything you need to make a quick informed decision in a host of everyday policing situations. The second edition is fully updated and revised to cover all relevant changes in legislation, including the Fraud Act 2006, Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006, Animal Welfare Act 2006, Road Safety Act 2006, Police and Justice Act 2006 and Emergency Workers Obstruction Act 2006.
