Poole S Paradise:

Poole's Index to Periodical Literature ,1888 Crime Fiction in the Caribbean Lucy Evans,2024-09-18 Crime Fiction in the Caribbean Reframing Crime and Justice is the first academic book to focus on crime fiction by anglophone Caribbean writers It explores how contemporary writers experiment with the crime genre in order to convey contextualize and comment on crime and justice in Caribbean countries Lucy Evans reads crime fiction as a versatile mode of writing that can be politically engaged and that in a Caribbean context can expose power structures embedded in the region s multi layered history of colonial conquest genocide of Indigenous populations plantation agriculture transatlantic slavery and indentured labour This book covers fiction set in Trinidad and Tobago Jamaica Guyana Barbados Grenada and Haiti discussing novels by Elizabeth Nunez Jacob Ross Marlon James Harischandra Khemraj Esther Figueroa Edwidge Danticat Cherie Jones and several others Evans considers how fiction by anglophone Caribbean writers not only reflects upon the social realities of crime and crime control in the Caribbean but also at times contests or complicates scholarly popular and legal perspectives She argues that through their engagement with the crime genre these writers raise pressing questions about what constitutes crime and justice in a Caribbean context and about accountability Looking beyond the traditional focus of crime fiction and criminology on individual acts of wrongdoing their fiction highlights systemic social harms rooted in the region s colonial past Reading crime fiction through the lens of criminological research Crime Fiction in the Caribbean brings the study of literary writing into scholarly debate on crime in the Caribbean At the same time it extends the global turn in crime fiction studies focusing on a region that has been sidelined even in studies which examine the genre s international dimensions Milton, Longinus, and the Sublime in the Seventeenth Century Thomas Matthew Vozar,2024-03-07 In this wide ranging study in classical reception and the history of ideas Thomas Matthew Vozar shows how Milton s ideas of the sublime were informed by a deep understanding of Longinus and other ancient sources The book also demonstrates how Longinus s ideas and writings were far more prevalent in early modern England than previously thought Poole's Index to Periodical Literature: 5th suppl 1902-1906 ,1908 Biological Exuberance Bruce Bagemihl,1999-01-15 Lavishly illustrated and meticulously researched filled with fascinating facts and astonishing descriptions of animal behavior Biological Exuberance is a groundbreaking book that explodes the myth that homosexuality is not frequently found in nature

Possible Knowledge Debapriya Sarkar argues for the pivotal role of literature what early moderns termed poesis in the dynamic intellectual culture of this era of profound incertitude Revealing how problems of epistemology are inextricable from questions of literary form Sarkar offers a defense of poesis or literary making as a vital philosophical endeavor Working across a range of genres Sarkar theorizes possible knowledge as an intellectual paradigm crafted in and through literary form Sixteenth and seventeenth century writers such as Spenser Bacon Shakespeare Cavendish and Milton marshalled the capacious concept of the possible defined by Philip Sidney as what may be and should be to construct new theories of physical and metaphysical reality These early modern thinkers mobilized the imaginative habits of thought constitutive to major genres of literary writing including epic tragedy romance lyric and utopia in order to produce knowledge divorced from historical truth and empirical fact by envisioning states of being untethered from nature or reality Approaching imaginative modes such as hypothesis conjecture prediction and counterfactuals as instruments of possible knowledge Sarkar exposes how the speculative allure of the possible lurks within scientific experiment induction and theories of probability In showing how early modern literary writing sought to grapple with the challenge of forging knowledge in an uncertain perhaps even incomprehensible world Possible Knowledge also highlights its most audacious intellectual ambition its claim that while natural philosophy or what we today term science might explain the physical world literature could remake reality Enacting a history of ideas that centers literary studies Possible Knowledge suggests that what we have termed a history of science might ultimately be a history of the imagination

Adam as Israel Seth D Postell, 2012-04-26 Postell contends that the opening chapters of the Bible when interpreted as a strategic literary introduction to the Torah and to the Tanakh intentionally foreshadows Israel s failure to keep the Sinai Covenant and their consequent exile from the Promised Land in order to point the reader to a future work of God Postell highlights numerous intentional links between the story of Adam and the story of Israel and in the process explains numerous otherwise perplexing features of the Eden story Postell employs a wealth of theologies to support his argument including those of Nicholas of Lyra John Calvin Wellhausen Johannes Coccejus and Matthew Poole successfully breathing new life into the wealth of exegeses
