cultural contact and negotiation The Routledge Handbook of Byzantine Visual Culture in the Danube Regions 1300 1600 brings to light the interconnectedness of this broad geographical area too often either studied in parts or neglected altogether emphasizing its shared history and heritage of the regions of modern Greece Croatia Serbia Bulgaria Romania Hungary Slovakia and Czechia The aim is to challenge established perceptions of what constitutes ideological and historical facets of the past as well as Byzantine and post Byzantine cultural and artistic production in a region of the world that has yet to establish a firm footing on the map of art history The 24 chapters offer a fresh and original approach to the history literature and art history of the Danube regions thus being accessible to students thematically chronologically or by case study each part can be read independently or explored as part of a whole Guide to Basic Information Sources in the Visual Arts Gerd Muehsam,1978 How to get information about artists How to research a work of art Primary sources Reference sources and resources Art histories and introductions Periodicals Prehistoric art Ancient art Medieval art The renaissance and mannerism Baroque and Rococo Modern art Architecture Sculpture Painting techniques Drawing Prints Photography Commercial art The Americas Europe Oriental art Primitive art tribal art Architecture and Freedom Owen Hopkins,2018-05-29 Architects are facing a crisis of agency For decades they have seen their traditional role diminish in scope as more and more of their responsibilities have been taken over by other disciplines within the building construction industry Once upon a time we might have seen the architect as the conductor of the orchestra now he or she is but one cog in a vast and increasingly complex machine In an attempt to find a way out of this crisis there is growing debate about how architects might reassert the importance of their role and influence On one side of this argument are those who believe that architects must refocus their attention on the internal demands of the discipline On the other are those who argue that architects must instead reacquaint themselves with what many still believe to be the discipline s core mission of advancing social progress and promoting the public good and at the same time the scope of their traditional disciplinary remit At root this question is fundamentally about freedom about whether architects still possess it if they have ever done and whether it is possible to find the professional disciplinary and individual autonomy to be able to define the spheres of their own practice Presenting a variety of views and perspectives this issue of AD takes us to the heart of what freedom means for architecture as it adapts and evolves in response to the changing contexts in which it is practised in the 21st century Contributors include Phillip Bernstein Peggy Deamer Adam Nathaniel Furman Kate Goodwin Charles Holland Anna Minton Patrik Schumacher Alex Scott Whitby Ines Weizman and Sarah Wigglesworth Featured architects Atelier Kite ScottWhitbyStudio C S Architects Anupama Kundoo Noero Architects Umbrellium and Zaha Hadid Architects Architectural Styles Margaret Fletcher,Robbie Polley,2021-01-26 A hand drawn guide to architectural styles throughout history Architectural Styles is an incomparable guide to architectural styles across the centuries and around the world Modeled after an architect s plein air sketchbook the volume features hundreds of detailed drawings by esteemed architectural illustrator Robbie Polley alongside
