

Final Exam: Romeo and Juliet

Shakespeare and his Theater

The questions below refer to Shakespeare and his works in general.

- What is one of the more likely reasons why high school students are required to read literary works written by William Shakespeare?
  - because most of today's high-paying jobs require fluency in Elizabethan language and literature
  - because Shakespeare's works are highly entertaining
  - because Shakespeare's works have had a profound impact on the world's most commercially popular languages
  - because his works have been translated into nearly all of the world's most commercially popular languages
  - since most of today's teachers were forced to read Shakespeare, it is only fitting that the cycle of abuse shall continue
- What is one of the more likely reasons why high school students are required to study The Tragedy of Romeo and Juliet?
  - because the main characters are closer in age to high school students
  - because it depicts death in a relatively non-violent, non-political, non-mathematical form of potential sex
  - because the story teaches valuable lessons about gang violence and drug addiction
  - because most parents do not like their children's boyfriends/friends
  - because students need to be aware of the dangers of arranged marriages
- With which theater are Shakespeare's works most closely associated?
  - the King's Theater
  - the Queen Elizabeth Theater
  - the Swan Theater
  - the Apollo Theater
  - the Swan Theater
- If you flew to London, you could visit a modern reconstruction of Shakespeare's theater. What would be one of the most noticeable differences in watching a play performed at this theater, as opposed to watching that same play performed at a theater where you live?
  - The audience would be larger in London.
  - Nobody is given assigned seats at the theater in London.
  - You might get turned on while watching the play in London.
  - At the theater in London, you wouldn't be allowed to eat the popcorn while the play is going on.
  - The theater in London was more elaborate and well lit.

Prologue

The questions below refer to the prologue to Act I of the play, The Tragedy of Romeo and Juliet.

- Shakespeare possibly included the prologue to Romeo and Juliet so that everyone in the audience knew that
  - the children from two long-hating families will fall in love and die
  - the play is written in iambic pentameter
  - Juliet will take her own death in order to be with Romeo
  - Juliet was from a rich family and Romeo was from a poor family
  - most of the women's roles would, in fact, be played by men
- The line of the prologue, "And for consequence of these pictures' signs, which but three children's end, might could remove," is easily followed when
  - Capulet says, "Obedience, children, give me life here!"
  - the Prince says, "O Capulet! More grief it shall do than death, your banishment."
  - the Friar says, "O gentle goddess, do not condemn such a wretched son of mine."
  - the Friar says, "For that alliance may be happy, even so here, your honor's child is mine no less than mine."
  - the Nurse says, "I will give the other your boy, but if he should have the child."
