These results suggest a policy intervention of strengthening the law-enforcement system against corruption. The government should consider strengthening the law-enforcement system by increasing the number of law-enforcement personnel and by increasing the number of law-enforcement personnel who are trained in the use of modern law-enforcement techniques.

These authors also note that the use of the term "diversity" is often used to describe a wide range of phenomena, from the presence of different ethnic groups in a community to the presence of different types of organizations in a community. This can lead to confusion and misunderstanding, as the term is used to describe very different things. The authors argue that the term "diversity" should be used to describe the presence of different types of organizations in a community, and that the term "ethnic diversity" should be used to describe the presence of different ethnic groups in a community.
