Dear Elvie Block,

I am writing to express my unwavering support for the educational and personal development of my child, Lester Nolan, who is currently enrolled at StronkCo. As a dedicated parent, I believe in the importance of fostering a nurturing environment that promotes both academic excellence and emotional well-being.

I am confident that the collaborative efforts between parents and educators play a crucial role in enhancing our children's learning experiences.

In my observations, Lester Nolan has shown remarkable growth and potential, demonstrating a keen interest in science and mathematics. I appreciate the commitment that the staff at StronkCo has exhibited in creating a supportive atmosphere where students are encouraged to explore their passions.

I would like to extend my gratitude to the teachers and administration for their ongoing efforts in guiding our children and preparing them for future challenges.

I am committed to being an active participant in my child's education and welcome any opportunities to collaborate with StronkCo to further enhance the learning environment.

Should you require any additional information or support from my end, please do not hesitate to reach out to me at [Your Email] or contact me directly at [Your Company Number]. Together, we can ensure that our children achieve their fullest potential.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Sample Letter Of Support For Parents:

Implementing Positive Behavior Support Systems in Early Childhood and Elementary Settings Melissa Stormont, 2008

The book's strengths are its practical information and the specific ways of looking at expectations and developing a common language. The forms included will be of great benefit to school teams. Susan Safarik, Supervisor, Department of Special Education, Lincoln Public Schools, NE. Provides a lot of research and breaks down the processes for implementing positive behavior supports effectively in schools. Step by step directions, sample forms, and examples make the processes easy to incorporate and understand. Julia DeGarmo, Special Education Specialist, Columbus City Schools, OH. Learn how to teach and support appropriate behavior and build confidence in young children. This easy to read resource presents the Programwide Schoolwide Positive Behavioral Support (PW-SWPBS) system, a preventive research-based approach that helps educators teach classroom behavior skills the same way they teach academic skills. The authors outline the PW-SWPBS model, describe the core practices, and provide case examples to aid implementation. Key features of this instruction-based system include: Differing levels of intervention to meet individual student needs; Clearly stated behavioral expectations; Consistent acknowledgment of students' mastery of expectations; Systematic use of consequences for problem behavior. This user-friendly text makes the principles of PW-SWPBS easy to apply for educators who are committed to helping young students establish positive behavioral habits that will make learning a joy for all. Getting Parents on Board Alisa Hindin, Mary

Mueller, 2016-02-05. Learn how to work more effectively with K-5 parents to increase student achievement in math and literacy. Research shows that parent involvement in schools leads to higher test scores and more engaged and enthusiastic students, but it isn't always easy for teachers to bridge the gap between the home and the school. This insightful book provides helpful research-based strategies to foster meaningful home-school partnerships and overcome the challenges teachers often face when trying to build relationships with parents. You'll learn new ways to promote parent involvement at home and school. Share specific math and literacy strategies with parents to reinforce children's learning. Plan and organize effective parent conferences that foster true dialogue about a child's education. Communicate with parents about what you're teaching and how you're teaching it so they can actively contribute to their child's learning at home. Develop family nights and workshops to get parents involved in learning at school. Recommend games, activities, and projects that parents can use at home to help their children practice math and literacy skills. And much more. Each chapter is full of practical tools such as Common Core-aligned strategies, useful resources for parents, and sample parent letters that you can use to increase and improve your home-school communications. Bonus: Additional parent letters on a variety of topics are available on our website www.routledge.com/9781138998698 to help you keep parents connected throughout the year. The Conscious Parent's
