Search Experience to Ad Usefulness Quick Sheet

Task Overview

When rating Search Experience to Ad Usefulness tasks, you will be considering the user's full search experience. This task will take you through a worksheet where you will answer several questions about the Ad or Landing Page. It is very important to research the search query before you begin answering the worksheet questions.

The screenshot shows the worksheet interface with several annotations:

- Current worksheet question: Points to the question "After researching this query, do you understand what the user wants?"
- In task instructions or examples: Points to a link "Learn more about this query" and a blue circle in the progress bar.
- Progress bar: A vertical bar on the right with blue circles and checkmarks indicating task progress.
- Task flags: Points to a section titled "Confirm query's problems" with checkboxes for "Query is missing", "Wrong language", and "Unexpected mark".
- Other task navigation, including Report a Problem: Points to the bottom navigation bar with links like "Feedback: Search", "Feedback: Content", "Feedback: Task", and "Report a Problem".
- Submit button: Points to the "Submit" button at the bottom right, which turns blue when required parts of the task are complete.

These questions are meant to help you think through the steps outlined in the guidelines:

1. Understand what the user wants
2. Think about what the ad offers
3. See what it's like to follow the ad
4. Assess the quality of the ad

All of the questions within this task have their own instructions. You may see a  symbol next to many of the available answers – be sure to hover or click on this symbol for further details or examples.
