Coleman, Peter Collins, 2020-09-09 Are reports of the death of conventional fieldwork in anthropology greatly exaggerated This book takes a critical look at the latest developments and key issues in fieldwork The nature of locality itself is problematic for both research subjects and fieldworkers on the grounds that it must now be maintained and represented in relation to widening and fragmenting social frames and networks Such developments have raised questions concerning the nature of ethnographic presence and scales of comparison From the social space of a cybercafe to cities in India the UK and South Africa among others this book features a wide range of ethnographic studies that provide new ways of looking at the concepts of locality and site It shows that rather than taking key fieldwork processes such as globalization and mobility for granted anthropologists are well placed to examine and critique the totalizing assumptions behind these notions Guide to Basic Statistics in Countries of the ECAFE Region United Nations. Dancing with Devtas: Drums, Power and Possession in the Music of Garhwal, North India Andrew Alter,2016-12-05 In the Central Himalayan region of Garhwal the gods devtas enjoy dancing Musicians whether ritual specialists or musical specialists are therefore an indispensable part of most entertainment and religious events In shamanistic ceremonies their incantations songs and drumming make the gods possess their mediums In other contexts such as dramatic theatrical renditions of stories of specific deities actors dance the role of their character having become possessed by the spirit of their character Through the powerful sounds of their drumming musicians cause the gods to dance Music and more particularly musical sound is perceived in Garhwal as a powerful force Andrew Alter examines music and musical practice in Garhwal from an analytical perspective that explores the nexus between musical sounds and performance events He provides insight into performance practice vocal techniques notions of repertoire classification instruments ensembles performance venues and dance practice However music is not viewed simply as a system of organized sounds such as drum strokes pitch iterations or repertoire items Rather in Garhwal the music is viewed as a system of knowledge and as a system of beliefs in which meaning and spirituality become articulated through potent sound iterations Alter makes a significant contribution to the discipline of ethnomusicology through a detailed documentation of musical practice in the context of ritual events The book offers a traditionally thorough historical ethnographic study of a region with the aim of integrating the local field based case studies of musical practices within the broader Garhwali context The work contains invaluable oral data which has been carefully transliterated as well as translated Alter blends a carefully detailed analysis of drumming in conjunction with the complex ritual and social contexts of this sophisticated and semantically rich musical practice Resources in Education ,1997-10 Political Transformations in Nepal Mom Bishwakarma,2019-03-07 This book offers an in depth analysis of the interrelationship between long standing caste discrimination in Nepal its vicious circle of impact upon the Dalit groups and the changes brought by the recent political transformations It explores the links between identity politics Dalit struggle and Dalit rights although Dalit identity is contested within the group The author explores the types of institutional measures that would be required to achieve social justice for Dalit in Nepal and analyses the underlying causes and nature of the deeply entrenched social economic education and political inequality manifested in the life cycle of Dalit The book examines contemporary political transformations including state restructuring and federalism processes and explores different models of federalism by a variety of experts in detail this is done with a view to making specific findings on the required institutional reform measures for the improvement of Dalit inclusion and representation in state mechanisms and policies This book contributes to the literature on the caste and Dalit discourse by proposing that the hegemonic caste structure is deeply entrenched and needs to be deracinated by asserting unified group politics of recognition in Nepal Political Transformations in Nepal will be of interest to academics working on South Asian Politics Identity Politics and Asian Social Policy College Access and Opportunity Guide 2011 ,

Nepali Guide Class 7: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
