Cognitive Science Rom Harré, 2002-02-18 This is the first major textbook to offer a truly comprehensive review of cognitive science in its fullest sense Ranging from artificial intelligence models of neural processes and cognitive psychology to recent discursive and cultural theories Rom Harré offers an original yet accessible integration of the field At its core this textbook addresses the question How can psychology become a science The answer is based on a clear account of method and explanation in the natural sciences and how they can be adapted to psychological research Rom Harré has used his experience of both the natural and the human sciences to create a text on which exciting and insightful courses can be built in many ways The text is based on the idea that underlying the long history of attempts to create a scientific psychology there are many unexamined presuppositions that must be brought to light Whether describing language categorization memory the brain or connectionism the book always links our intuitions about how we think feel and act in the contexts of everyday life to the latest accounts of the neural tools with which we accomplish the cognitive tasks demanded of us Computational and biological models are used to link the discursive analysis of everyday cognition to the necessary activities of the brain and nervous system Fluently written and well structured this is an ideal text for students who want to gain a comprehensive view of the current state of the art with its seeming divergence into studies of meanings and studies of neurology The book is divided into four basic modules with suggestions for three lectures in each The plan is related to the overall pattern of the semester programme The reader is guided with helpful learning points sections of study questions for review and key readings for each chapter Cognitive Science A Philosophical Introduction with its remarkable sweep of themes past and present truly introduces the science of the mind for a new generation of psychology students Cognitive Science should be indispensable reading for students at all levels taking courses in cognitive science and cognitive psychology and useful additional course reading in other areas such as social psychology artificial intelligence philosophy of the mind and linguistics Key Points First major textbook to provide a link between computational philosophical and biological models in an accessible format for students Presents a new vision of psychology as a scientific discipline Breadth of coverage ranging from artificial intelligence to key themes theories in cognitive science past and present language memory the brain and behaviour to recent discursive and cultural theories Plenty of student features to help the student and tutor including helpful learning points study and essay questions and key readings at the end of every chapter Women in Neuroscience Marie-Ève Tremblay,Corette J. Real Learning Harry Morgan, 2003 Table of contents Life and Death in Freud and Heidegger Havi Carel, 2006 Life and Death in Freud and Heidegger argues that mortality is a fundamental structuring element in human life The ordinary view of life and death regards them as dichotomous and separate This book explains why this view is unsatisfactory and presents a new model of the relationship between life and death that sees them as interlinked Using Heidegger's concept of being towards death and Freud's notion of the death drive it demonstrates the extensive influence death has on everyday life and gives an account of its structural and existential significance By bringing the two perspectives together this book presents a reading of death that establishes its significance for life creates a meeting point for philosophical and psychoanalytical perspectives and examines the problems and strengths of each It then puts forth a unified view based on the strengths of each position and overcoming the problems of each Finally it works out the ethical consequences of this view This volume is of interest for philosophers mental health practitioners and those working in the field of death studies

The Lesser Bushbaby (Galago) as an Animal Model: Selected Topics Duane E. Haines, 2019-08-08 It is not the goal of the present volume to promote Galago as an animal model but to alert investigators to the potential thereof In this respect this collection of papers serves as a general introduction The subjects covered are purposefully broad so as to illustrate that Galago not only has been but may be utilized with success in a variety of research areas Most papers deal with the pros and cons of utilizing Galago in a specific line of research and in many instances discuss potential problems which may arise The established value of the lesser bushbaby in particular research endeavour is also discussed and illustrated by some contributors

Meditation Jr. Shapiro, 2017-07-12 Many claim that meditation is effective in the treatment of many ailments associated with stress and high blood pressure and in the management of pain While there are many popular books on meditation few embrace the science as well as the art of meditation In this volume Shapiro and Walsh fill this need by assembling a complete collection of scholarly articles Meditation Classic and Contemporary Perspectives From an academic rather than a popular vantage the volume takes the claims and counterclaims about meditation to a deeper analytical level by including studies from clinical psychology and psychiatry neuroscience psychophysiology and biochemistry Each selection is a contribution to the field either as a classic of research or by being methodologically elegant heuristically interesting or creative Original articles cover such topics as the effects of meditation in the treatment of stress hypertension and addictions the comparison of meditation with other self-regulation strategies the adverse effects of meditation and meditation induced altered states of consciousness Concluding with a major bibliography of related works Meditation offers the reader a valuable overview of the state and possible future directions of meditation research Today in the popular media and elsewhere debate continues Is meditation an effective technique for spiritual and physical healing or is it quackery Meditation Classic and Contemporary Perspectives weighs in on this debate by presenting what continues to be the most complete collection of scholarly articles ever amassed on the subject of meditation Freud, V.1 Paul E. Stepansky,2015-01-28 A response to the veritable renaissance in Freud studies Freud Appraisals and Reappraisals presents the readers with the fruits of recent scholarship on Freud the man and scientist and the origins and development of the psychoanalytic movement spawned by his work The premier volume of this series offers three major essays embodying different tributaries of contemporary Freud research Peter Swales drawing on extensive archival research reveals the identity and explores the life and times of the woman Freud terms his first teacher but presented to his readers only as the Frau Caecilie M of the Studies on Hysteria Barry Silverstein brings together complementary strands of textual analysis and psychobiographical reconstruction in his provocative reconsideration of the circumstances surrounding Freud s lost papers on metapsychology Finally Edwin Wallace s integrative review of Freud s scattered remarks on ethics and morality combined with his appraisal of Freud s personal ethics yield a measured and scholarly account of Freud as ethicist Briefer essays on Freud and the oral tradition Patrick Mahony Freud s psychology of religion Paul Stepansky and recent assessments of Freud s character John Gedo round out a volume that is destined for a place of distinction in the secondary literature on Freud Collectively these essays represent a most auspicious debut for the new series they admirably bear out Paul Stepansky s intent of presenting readers with original articles that embody high scholarship an a thought provoking and imaginative use of the fruits of this scholarship 1001 Best Websites for Kids Lynn C.
