Rethinking Letter Grades Caren Cameron, Kathleen Gregory, 2014-10-21 Authors Caren Cameron and Kathleen Gregory offer a practical five step process for arriving at letter grades that moves away from collecting a string of marks and calculating a grade. They offer an alternative assessment method by examining a wide variety of assessment tools: rating scales, scoring keys, rubrics, test scores, observation records, discussion notes, symbols, portfolio collections, and more, and match the student evidence with a description of achievement.

Growing Into Equity Sonia Caus Gleason, Nancy Gerzon, 2013-07-25 High achieving students and teachers winning strategies from Title I schools. What makes a Title I school high achieving and what can we all learn from that experience? Professional learning and leadership that supports personalized instruction makes the difference, as captured in the ground breaking research of authors Sonia Caus Gleason and Nancy Gerzon. This illuminating book shows how four outstanding schools are making individualized learning a reality for every teacher and student. The common thread is the commitment to equity: every student achieving. Readers will find Guidance on identifying obstacles to equity within your school. Background that builds a case for personalized learning. Four case studies that show the lived values, professional learning practices, leadership, and systems that have helped schools transform learning. How to's and templates for creating a team based professional development program that expands individualized instruction in every classroom. Discover new approaches for individual, team, and whole school professional learning that support personalized learning drawn from schools that are leaders in overcoming challenges and creating opportunities. Equity is not an afterthought to high achievement. Gleason and Gerzon's new book on outstanding equity driven practice in four very different schools shows that if you want to raise the bar, you have to start by narrowing the gap.
