Strengthening the Responsibility to Protect Richard Illingworth, 2023-11-02 This book provides a systematic analysis of reform measures aimed at strengthening the implementation of the Responsibility to Protect R2P doctrine utilising a cosmopolitan lens In 2005 member states of the United Nations UN accepted a Responsibility to Protect against four mass atrocity crimes genocide crimes against humanity war crimes and ethnic cleansing Despite this commitment mass atrocities remain a pervasive aspect of the international landscape In addressing R2P reform the book utilises a transitional cosmopolitan lens The aim of this transitional cosmopolitan approach is to promote incremental progress towards solving moral problems by operating within particular contexts and practical barriers to change Three areas for reform are explored the UN Security Council P5 s power of veto to prevent the veto obstructing timely and decisive R2P response action the powers of the UN General Assembly as an alternative means for responding to mass atrocity situations and the establishment of an R2P Commission to hold states accountable for their R2P commitments These are not advocated as the definitive areas for R2P reform However each of the recommendations made can contribute at least some positive progress towards a more cosmopolitan application of the R2P that would help in curbing mass atrocity and improving the protection of fundamental human rights This book will be of much interest to students of the Responsibility to Protect genocide humanitarian protection and International Relations in general
