The Postcolonial Indian Novel in English Geetha Ganapathy-Doré, 2011-01-18 Indian writers of English such as G V Desani Salman Rushdie Amit Chaudhuri Amitav Ghosh Vikram Seth Allan Sealy Shashi Tharoor Arundhati Roy Vikram Chandra and Jhumpa Lahiri have taken the potentialities of the novel form to new heights Against the background of the genre s macro history this study attempts to explain the stunning vitality colourful diversity and the outstanding but sometimes controversial success of postcolonial Indian novels in the light of ongoing debates in postcolonial studies It analyses the warp and woof of the novelistic text through a cross sectional scrutiny of the issues of democracy the poetics of space the times of empire nation and globalization self writing in the auto meta docu fictional modes the musical pictorial cinematic and culinary intertextualities that run through this hyperpalimpsestic practice and the politics of gender caste and language that gives it an inimitable stamp This concise and readable survey gives us intimations of a truly world literature as imagined by Francophone writers because the postcolonial Indian novel is a concrete illustration of how language liberated from its exclusive pact with the nation can enter into a dialogue with a vast polyphonic ensemble How Our Lives

Become Stories Paul John Eakin, 2019-06-30 The popularity of such books as Frank McCourt s Angela s Ashes Mary Karr s The Liars Club and Kathryn Harrison s controversial The Kiss has led columnists to call ours the age of memoir And while some critics have derided the explosion of memoir as exhibitionistic and self aggrandizing literary theorists are now beginning to look seriously at this profusion of autobiographical literature Informed by literary scientific and experiential concerns How Our Lives Become Stories enhances knowledge of the complex forces that shape identity and confronts the equally complex problems that arise when we write about who we think we are Using life writings as examples including works by Christa Wolf Art Spiegelman Oliver Sacks Henry Louis Gates Melanie Thernstrom and Philip Roth Paul John Eakin draws on the latest research in neurology cognitive science memory studies developmental psychology and related fields to rethink the very nature of self representation After showing how the experience of living in one s body shapes one s identity he explores relational and narrative modes of being emphasizing social sources of identity and demonstrating that the self and the story of the self are constantly evolving in relation to others Eakin concludes by engaging the ethical issues raised by the conflict between the authorial impulse to life writing and a traditional privacy based ethics that such writings often violate

Tracing the complex yet intimate relationship between a present day national obsession with childhood and a colonial past with which Australia as a nation has not adequately come to terms Young and Free draws on philosophy literature film and testimony The result is a demonstration of how anxiety about childhood has become a screen for more fundamental and intractable issues that vex Australian social and political life Joanne Faulkner argues that by interpreting these anxieties in their relation to settler colonial Australia's unresolved conflict with Aboriginal people new ways of conceiving of Australian community may be opened The book engages with philosophical and literary characterizations of childhood from Locke and Rousseau to Freud Bergson Benjamin Agamben Lacan Rancière and Halbwachs The author's psychoanalytic approach is supplemented by an engagement with contemporary political philosophy that informs Faulkner's critique of the concepts of the subject sovereignty and knowledge resulting in a speculative postcolonial model of the subject Cover artist credit Lyndsay Bird Mpetyane Artwork title Ahakeye Bush Plum APAIS 1999: Australian public affairs information service , Sightlines Helen Gilbert, 2025-10-01 Sightlines Race Gender and Nation in Contemporary Australian Theatre asserts the centrality of theater to the ongoing negotiations of the Australian context By exploring ways in which ideas about race gender and nation are expressed in concrete theatrical contexts the performative qualities of theatrical representation are revealed as compelling important sites of critique Helen Gilbert discusses an exciting variety of plays drawing examples from marginalized groups as well as from the theatrical mainstream While fully engaged with the discourses of contemporary critical thought Sightlines remains focused on the material stuff of the theater grounding its discussion in the visual elements of costume movement and scenography And although focused specifically on performance the author's insistent interest in historical and political contexts also speaks to the broader concerns of cultural studies The book's recurrent concern with representations of Aboriginality particularly in the works of nonindigenous playwrights draws attention to racial politics as a perennial motif in postcolonial nations Its illumination of the relationships between patriarchy and imperialism is supported by an extensive discussion of plays by and about women This nomadic approach marks Sightlines as a groundbreaking study of recent Australian theater a provocative application of postcolonial theory to the embodied qualities of theatrical representation An impressive and ground breaking study that provides a coherent postcolonial approach to Australian drama Bill Ashcroft University of New South Wales Elegantly written and always beautifully lucid in its argument this is a very original work particularly in its marriage of performance theory and postcolonial analysis Deidre Coleman University of Sydney Helen Gilbert is Lecturer in Drama and Theatre Studies University of Queensland and co author with Joanne Tompkins of Post Colonial Drama Theory Practice Politics Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003-04 Northwest Anthropological Research Notes Deward E.
