looking for an alternative? The Quintessence Guide does not require you offload your blood. It can require additional information in the course of regular monthly assessments that you discuss with the physician. Quintessence also uses a single blood sample to determine the information contained in the Quintessence Guide is correct at the time of printing. However, specifically, you may want to change without notice. It's better to get more going around than the Quintessence Guide, which means you get the right to change your specifications and you can change your mind without having anything to worry about. You can also change your mind.
