EuroKarst 2016, Neuchâtel Philippe Renard, Catherine Bertrand, 2017-01-03 This book presents the latest advances in the field of karst hydrogeology and carbonate reservoirs. These include but are not limited to geomorphology of karst flow and solute transport in karst, innovative metrology modelling, speleogenesis and geology of carbonate reservoirs, deep reservoir exploration and production, water management and protection in karst environments, contaminant migration and chemical behavior, hydrochemistry and regional aquifer studies. EuroKarst offers a platform for professional exchanges between field practitioners and academic researchers. It is the European biennial conference on the hydrogeology of karst and carbonate reservoirs. It is organized every two years by the Universities of Neuchâtel, Switzerland, Besançon, France and Málaga, Spain.

Regional Powers and Contested Leadership Hannes Ebert, Daniel Flemer, 2018-03-19 When do rising powers fail to establish legitimate regional leadership and instead face contestation by their regional challengers? This book investigates how and why the BRICS (Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa) project leadership in South America, post-Soviet Eurasia, South and Southeast Asia and sub-Saharan Africa respectively, and in what ways their main regional challengers respond. Based on a systematic conceptualization of the types and drivers of leadership and contestation, the authors assess the impact of the rise of regional powers on weaker states' security, sovereignty and status, as well as the consequences of contestation for regional economic development and stability and the regional powers' bid for greater voice in global governance. By illuminating the sources and effects of power politics in five regions that are increasingly pivotal for the emerging world order, the volume offers a global comparative analysis of contemporary regional contested leadership that will interest scholars and students of international affairs, foreign policy and area studies. Wayward Feeling Helene

Strauss, 2022-05-30 Inventive new methods of audio-visual mediation and aesthetic activism have been giving shape since at least the mid-2000s to feelings of despair, disappointment and rage at the injustice that South Africa's colonial and apartheid histories continue to trail in their wake. Wayward Feeling reveals how racism, sexism and other forms of structural disenfranchisement have continued to assert themselves in affective terms and how these terms have been recast in spaces both public and intimate in post-rainbow times. Helene Strauss argues that the tension between aspiration and achievability has yielded modes of feeling that increasingly disrupt the thrall of post-apartheid nation building and reconciliation myths, even as wide-spread attachment to the utopian ideals of the anti-apartheid struggle continues to shape dissenting political organising and cultural production. Drawing on a variety of audio-visual forms including video installations, conceptual artwork, documentary film, live art and sonic installations, Wayward Feeling examines some of the affective resources that people in contemporary South Africa have been drawing on to make difficult lives more bearable. Advances in
