Development Planning Strategies and Frameworks in the Global South George Okechukwu Onatu, Wellington

Didibhuku Thwala, Clinton Ohis Aigbavboa, 2023-12-14 Functioning as a toolkit for inclusive urban planning this book acts as both a model for understanding the planning and management of this framework and a foundation for future research

Driving Change Gibbon, Trish, 2014-06-12 Driving Change tells a story that exemplifies a basic law of physics known to all the application of a relatively small lever can shift weight create movement and initiate change far in excess of its own size It tells a story about a particular instance of development cooperation relatively modest in scope and aim that has nonetheless achieved remarkable things and has been held up as an exemplar of its kind It does not tell a story of flawless execution and perfectly achieved outcomes it is instead a narrative that gives some insight into the structural and organisational arrangements the institutional and individual commitments and above all the work intelligence and passion of its participants which made the SANTED Programme a noteworthy success

Comprehensive Internationalization John K.

Hudzik, 2014-11-20 This book is a timely insight into the internationalization of higher education institutions The internationalization of higher education is a global phenomenon but with substantial variation in how it is made operational in individual institutions Comprehensive Internationalization focuses on desirable practices in institutions and their actual approaches to implement a more integrated strategic or comprehensive global engagement across their core missions teaching research and service Part I of the book investigates a wide range of issues governing the internationalization of institutions Outlining the origins meaning and evolution toward more strategic and comprehensive forms of internationalization building an understanding of the meanings of comprehensive internationalization as well as common aspirations when linked to different types of institutions understanding the rationales and motivations for internationalization and intended results creating an institutional vision and culture to support comprehensive internationalization and implementing key strategies for successful internationalization in terms of practical actions and programs and results including identifying and ameliorating barriers engaging organizational change assessing outcomes and obtaining resources Part II of the book offers case stories from institutions across the globe which describe varying pathways toward more comprehensive internationalization Institutions were chosen to reflect the diversity of higher education and approaches to internationalization An analysis of the cases uncovers similarities and differences as well as common lessons to be learned With contributions from mainland Europe Australia the USA the UK Latin America Singapore and South Africa the global application of the book is unparalleled Comprehensive Internationalization will be of vital interest to a wide variety of higher education institutional leaders and managers as they address the problems and solutions for institutional internationalization available to them in a rapidly changing educational world and a 21st Century global environment

Engaging University

Students Hamish Coates, Alexander C. McCormick, 2014-04-18 This book provides university teachers leaders and policymakers with evidence on how researchers in several countries are monitoring and improving student engagement the extent to which students are exposed to and participate in effective educational practices It captures insights from international implementations of the National Survey of Student Engagement NSSE developed in the United States In the last half decade NSSE has been adapted and used in several other countries producing the largest international collaboration yet involving educationally relevant data on students engagement in higher education Leaders of established national collaborations draw on their experiences with hundreds of institutions to contribute their insights Framed by their cultural and educational contexts they discuss issues concerning first year learners international students part time and distance learners as well as teaching and leadership in support of student learning Each chapter outlines strategies based on national case studies and presents perspectives supported by concrete examples of how these have played out in diverse settings The book suggests mechanisms that can be used by institutions ministries and quality agencies around the world

Postgraduate Supervision Magda Fourie-Malherbe, Ruth Albertyn, Eli Bitzer, 2016-11-21 The 24 chapters contained in this volume provide diverse but also congruent perspectives on future foci for research into postgraduate education and supervision in the knowledge society The chapters move from deliberations on challenges for postgraduate supervision at macro level such as the pressure to increase postgraduate output and the implications of increasingly managerialist institutions to meso level matters the form and function of postgraduate education in specific countries to the micro rich case studies of individual institutions programmes and supervisors

Modern State Development, Capacity, and Institutions Derica Lambrechts, 2017-07-31 This book makes an important original conceptual and theoretical contribution to our understanding of modern state development the role of the state and the South African transition to democracy Its focus on related concepts such as state capacity political trust and tolerance adds to insights on the dynamics of political and democratic transitions Furthermore the selected focus areas as well as the comparative approach add new insights into the peculiarities of the South African transition state development state capacity and state institutions Its focus on societal dynamics and state society relations is a significant contribution
