Grateful for the Fight Viola

Neufeld,2017-10-04 Don t waste your conflict Grateful for the Fight goes beyond resolving conflict to using conflict to transform lives Neufeld cautions that the urgency in today s society to resolve conflict might be a sophisticated way of bypassing the true value of conflict If we let it conflict can be our ally an unusual window into the self By investigating our fears and releasing them we stand to make a true and lasting change that will improve our daily lives and every one of our relationships The premise of Grateful for the Fight Neufeld s first book is that if we have the necessary fight with ourselves we won t be having unnecessary fights with others and we will be more equipped to have the necessary ones Using real case scenarios and personal experiences Neufeld demonstrates how using outer conflict to work through inner conflict points to a greater capacity for growth and resilience in uncomfortable situations If you re ready to heal personal and mutual sensitivities gain greater inner peace and enjoy a relationship with more intimacy and vitality welcome You ve come to the right place

Looking Within Deborah

Blizzard,2007-08-03 An ethnographic study of fetoscopy that considers both the broader cultural context of this high risk obstetrical procedure and the patient s individual experience In Looking Within Deborah Blizzard examines the high risk in utero surgery known as fetoscopy considering it as both cutting edge medical technology and as a sociocultural construction of patients their social networks and medical providers She looks at the way individual experiences shape these procedures and how fetoscopy affects individuals both patients and providers on a personal emotional level Based on an eleven month ethnographic study of the fetoscopy practice at a community based hospital and further interviews with former patients Looking Within offers a vivid picture of the sometimes conflicted often desperate and always emotional lives of those undergoing fetoscopy and challenges current assumptions about normal and appropriate pregnancy experiences To convey the complex reality of fetoscopy Blizzard draws from the experiences of the real patients she interviewed for the book to present the fictional case of Melinda and Joe taking them through the entire process from diagnosis to decision to outcome She then discusses the emergence of fetoscopy as an accepted form of high risk obstetrical care how fetoscopy programs are established at hospitals and why otherwise healthy women consent to surgery Blizzard examines the use of fetoscopy in single fetus and in twin pregnancies looking at how religion culture society and medical science inform any understanding of who or what is in utero a baby a tumor a mass She also discusses definitions of loss and success and the narratives patients and their social networks construct to make sense of them Looking Within will help physicians and nurses improve the development and delivery of fetoscopy procedures help patients understand this new technology and help scholars evaluate fetoscopy's bioethical social and cultural implications

The Yellow Emperor's Inner Transmission of Acupuncture

Yang Zhenhai, 2020-03-03 An indefatigable discoverer and preserver of lost traditions in the field of classical Chinese medicine Liu Lihong has done it again The Yellow Emperor's Inner Transmission of Acupuncture features a passionate and clinically relevant synthesis of his discipleship with Yang Zhenhai one of the last remaining master practitioners of Daoist acupuncture in mainland China At the forefront of an international discourse on the definition and clinical significance of classical Chinese medicine Yang and Liu promote yet another holistic medical system that radically contrasts the current penchant for symptom oriented procedures This English edition of their book lifts an important esoteric acupuncture lineage out of obscurity and presents it to us in complete and accessible form The holistic approach has also defined Liu's relentless search for the heart of Chinese medicine during the last three decades driving his commitment to become the promoter of a diverse spectrum of healing traditions that exemplify the classical standards of Chinese medicine

Learning Through Collective Memory Work Goya Wilson Vásquez, 2025-01-30 This book traces the process of producing testimonio with the children of the Tupac Amaru Revolutionary Movement MRTA an insurgent group during Peru's internal war 1980-2000 It examines how the group navigates post war struggles over memory while dealing with the children of terrorists stigma Drawing from a cycles of inquiry approach the book theorizes three movements for memory work a realist presentation of testimonial narratives a politics of memory engaging with the conditions of production and a poetics of memory that troubles memory voice and representation for qualitative inquiry in post war contexts Challenging the notion of war torn countries as

Biology Cecie Starr, John Alcock, 1991 The Social Life of Unsustainable Mass Consumption Magnus

Boström, 2023-08-21 The Social Life of Unsustainable Mass Consumption draws on a variety of theories and research to contribute to our understanding of unsustainable mass consumption It addresses the role of identities social relations interactions belonging and status comparison and how perceived time scarcity is both a cause and an effect of consumption It examines the power of consumer norms and how overconsumption is normalized and shows how consumption is embedded in the time space arrangements of everyday life Magnus Boström contextualizes such drivers within the larger institutional and infrastructural forces underlying mass consumption including the economy growth politics and the problematic promises of consumer culture Boström further draws on lessons from lived experiments of consuming less and discuss how insights about the flaws of consumer culture can help shape a growing critique and countermovement a collective detox from consumerism

Olde Penn, 1929 Psychoanalysis in China David E. Scharff, Sverre Varvin, 2018-03-08 The introduction of psychoanalysis to China over the last twenty years brings a clash between Eastern and Western philosophical backgrounds Chinese patients therapists and trainees struggle with assumptions inherent in an analytic attitude steeped in Western ideas of individualism that are often at odds with a Chinese Confucian ethic of respect for the family and the work group The situation is further complicated by the rapid evolution of Chinese culture itself emerging from years of trauma new economics and the one child policy of the last generation that has introduced a new Chinese brand of individualism and new family structure that are not equivalent to those of the West This volume breaks new ground in exploring these issues and challenges to the introduction of analytic therapies into China from the viewpoint of Western teachers and Chinese teachers clinicians anthropologists and observers
