*Dear Lord,
Help my hands do Your

The Pastor's Note John L. Spurgeon,2017-03-06 Throughout the gospel we find how Christ used parables to describe our personal relationship with God He took the tangible things of life as example to illustrate a spiritual life in Christ The devotional before you has one hundred devotions many based on parables of my life and stories I recall Why one hundred One hundred represents fullness and a completion as well as principle of return My first hope is that your reading this will not only help you to recognize that everything is spiritual but also give you an opportunity to know and experience more of Gods presence Second my hope is that completing this devotion wont mark an end or accomplishment but that you will be spiritually primed to pursue greater depths in an intimate relationship with our Savior And last with the principle of return I pray that you will continue to grow and be further profitable to Gods kingdom and purpose taking what God gives in abundance and pouring it over into the lives of others

The Pastor in a Changing Society Zawadi Job Kinyamagoha,2014-10-07 This book examines how social change affects the role of the pastor in an African context Through field study in African churches author Zawadi Job Kinyamagoha explores how pastors work amid the tensions of rapid social change and suggests how pastors can constructively respond to social change by using it as an opportunity in their pastoral ministry Contemporary society is characterized by three cultural spheres the economic sphere the public sphere and the democratic or self governance rule the realities of which many pastors seem to overlook Church authorities seem to adhere rigidly to strict principles and rules without accommodating the realities of society Conversely a changing society demands that pastors work with the reality at hand leaving pastors caught between two conflicting tensions the pressure from church authorities and from a changing social reality The Pastor in a Changing Society seeks to help Tanzanian and African pastors rethink existing doctrines and practices in order to better respond to the reality of a changing society
