Christine Tartaro,David Lester,2010-07-12 Police and corrections personnel must always be mindful of the possibility that those in their custody may attempt suicide or commit an act of self mutilation Persons housed in prisons jails and police lockups tend to be at a higher risk for such destructive behavior than members of the general population Reasons for this can be found by examining the mental health substance abuse and physical sexual abuse histories of inmates in addition to deficits in their coping skills and the stress and uncertainty generated by incarceration This book explores several topics pertaining to suicide and deliberate self harm in the corrections setting including who tends to commit these acts where when and how these incidents occur screening mechanisms the role of environmental stimuli in facilitating or preventing acts of self harm interpersonal relations among inmates and between inmates and staff and the role of the courts in setting and ruling on suicide prevention policies The authors discuss the role of prevention techniques that offer a balance between strict opportunity reduction and softer motivation reduction strategies The book also includes suggestions for diversion programs that can keep mentally ill inmates out of prisons and jails and transition planning programs to better prepare outgoing inmates for their re entry into the community Crimes of the Powerful Dawn Rothe,David Kauzlarich,2022-05-26 As politicians and the media perpetuate the stereotype of the common criminal crimes committed by the powerful remain for the most part invisible or are reframed as a bad decision or a rare mistake This is a topic that remains marginalized within the field of criminology and criminal justice yet crimes of the powerful cause more harm perpetuate more inequalities and result in more victimization than street crimes Crimes of the Powerful White Collar Crime and Beyond is the first textbook to bring together and show the symbiotic relationships between the related fields of state crime white collar crime corporate crime financial crime and organized crime and environmental crime Dawn L Rothe and David Kauzlarich introduce the many types of crimes their theoretical relevance and issues surrounding regulations and social controls for crimes of the powerful Themes covered include media culture and the Hollywoodization of crimes of the powerful theoretical understanding and the study of the crimes of the powerful typology of crimes of the powerful with examples and case studies victims of the crimes of the powerful the regulation and resistance of elite crime Fully updated and revised the new edition includes new chapters on occupational crime crimes against the environment and further coverage of representations of resistance to crimes of the powerful in popular culture An ideal introductory text for both undergraduate and postgraduate students taking modules on
