Joshua C. Taylor,1987 This unique and extraordinarily rich collection of writings offers a thematic approach to understanding the various theories of art that illumined the direction of nineteenth century artists as diverse as Tommaso Minardi and Georges Seurat It is significant that during the nineteenth century most artists felt compelled to found their artistic practice on a consciously established premise Nineteenth-century Theories of Art Joshua Charles Taylor,1987

Twentieth Century Theories of Art James Matheson Thompson,1990 Includes selections from major writers on various approaches to art theory for example Freud Jung Marx Heidegger Theories of Art Moshe Barasch,2013-10-18 In this volume the third in his classic series on art theory Moshe Barasch traces the hidden patterns and interlocking themes in the study of art from impressionism to abstract art Barasch details the immense social changes in the creation presentation and reception of art which have set the history of art theory on a vertiginous new course the decreased relevance of workshops and art schools the replacement of the treatise by the critical review and the emerging interrelationship between scientific inquiry and artistic theory The consequent changes in the ways in which critics as well as artists conceptualized paintings and sculptures were radical marked by an obsession with intense sensory experiences psychological reflection on the effects of art and an attraction to the exotic and alien making for the most exciting and fertile period in the history of art criticism

Theories of Art: From Impressionism to Kandinsky Moshe Barasch,2000 Modern Theories of Art 2 Moshe Barasch,1998-03-01 In this volume the third in his classic series of texts surveying the history of art theory Moshe Barasch traces the hidden patterns and interlocking themes in the study of art from Impressionism to Abstract Art Barasch details the immense social changes in the creation presentation and reception of art which have set the history of art theory on a vertiginous new course the decreased relevance of workshops and art schools the replacement of the treatise by the critical review and the interrelation of new modes of scientific inquiry with artistic theory and praxis The consequent changes in the ways in which critics as well as artists conceptualized paintings and sculptures were radical marked by an obsession with intense immediate sensory experiences psychological reflection on the effects of art and a magnetic pull to the exotic and alien making for the most exciting and fertile period in the history of art criticism History of Art Horst Woldemar Janson,Anthony F. Janson,2004 For forty years this widely acclaimed classic has remained unsurpassed as an introduction to art in the Western world boasting the matchless credibility of the Janson name This newest update features a more contemporary more colorful design and vast array of extraordinarily produced illustrations that have become the Janson hallmark A narrative voice makes this book a truly enjoyable read and carefully reviewed and revised updates to this edition offer the utmost clarity in contributions based on recent scholarship Extensive captions for the book s incredible art program offer profound insight through the eyes of twentieth century art historians speaking about specific pieces of art featured throughout Significantly changed in this edition is the chapter on The Late Renaissance in which Janson offers a new perspective on the subject tracing in detail the religious art tied to the Catholic Reform movement whose early history is little known to many readers of art history Janson has also rearranged early Renaissance art according to genres instead of time sequence and he has followed the reinterpretation of Etruscan art begun in recent years by German and English art historians With a truly humanist approach this book gives written and visual meaning to the captivating story of what artists have tried to express and why for more than 30 000 years

Russian Genre Painting in the Nineteenth Century

Rosalind Polly Blakesley, 2000 This book addresses the little studied area of Russian genre painting in the first three quarters of the nineteenth century Rosalind Gray begins by examining artistic patronage and published texts which engaged with the visual arts in order to illustrate the context in which Russian artists were working Five major painters Venetsianov Bryullov Ivanov Fedotov and Perov are then discussed in detail Dr Gray identifies the vital contribution which these artists made to Russian intellectual life as genre painting was appropriated as a medium in the dissemination of popular values and social change At the same time the relationship between Russian and European art is explored The book demonstrates that far from being a self contained movement Russian genre painting instead engaged in a fluid and complex dialogue with the art of the West
