The Ten Toe Express: A Daily Journal of a 5,000 Mile Hike Matt Gregory, 2021-07-19 This is the daily journal of Matt Gregory's 5,000 mile hike from Bellingham Washington to Key West Florida. He left Bellingham on September 1st 2006. Author's Note: This book is the unedited journal I kept on the hike. Sometimes I went days without seeing a computer and wrote them in a notebook. Once I finally saw a computer it was usually a mad dash to update each journal entry in a fixed amount of time at libraries, internet cafes, and people's houses. I made one pass fixing a few spelling errors but decided to keep everything else as is. To me it keeps the essence of the journal alive. Most journal entries were written in a hurry while I was tired and pressed for time. Thank you for taking the time out to give this a read. I will finish the memoir soon. Palm Oil Controversy in Southeast Asia Oliver Pye, 2003-08-01 This engaged and vital edited volume brings together the varied viewpoints of academics, consultants, and activists all concerned with the astonishing expansion of palm oil as a globally traded commodity. It reveals how this complex, contested, and controversial expression of globalization transcends narrow national and sectoral interests, stimulating a transnational exchange of goods, capital, and labour, as well as laws, norms, values, and even understanding. Compelling, readable, and insightful, the study shows that corporate responses to civil society's concerns about palm oil's role in global warming, human rights abuses, land grabbing, and biodiversity loss now need to be complemented by legal, regulatory, and governance reforms to be effective. Marcus Colchester, Director, Forest Peoples Programme. The Italian Model of Management Luigi Serio, 2018-04-27 This book is an essential resource for facilitators seeking to help students develop their knowledge of management practice in Italy. It presents a collection of the best case studies and accompanying teaching notes from the Italian Association for Management Development (ASFOR) competition in 2014. The cases are written by teachers across many of the members of ASFOR in Italy, leading business schools, corporate universities, and academia. Knowledge gained by professionals often remains implicit and is rarely shared. By grouping together the award-winning case studies in this volume, readers can gain an important insight into how management is conducted in Italy. This collection shines a light on management practices across several industries. The Italian economy differs from others in that it is one in which small and family-run businesses dominate, and the relationship between the private sector and public life is unique. As a result, The Italian Model of Management provides the opportunity for students to enlarge the Anglo-Saxon model and perspective of management and to offer cross-cultural learning experiences based on the distinction of a Made in Italy competitive advantage. Each case provides an engaging story, plots the strategic development of the organization in question, and is supported by online teaching guidance and teaching notes. Million Dollar Directory, 1996.
