1. [illegible] The Legislature finds and declares that the state budget process, the appropriations that are enacted by the Legislature, and the budgetary actions taken by the Governor should be consistent with the principles of sound fiscal management. Accordingly, the Legislature finds and declares that it is necessary to establish a process for the development of a budget that is sustainable for the long term, that is based on reliable revenue estimates, and that is consistent with the principles of sound fiscal management.

   [illegible] The Legislature finds and declares that a budget process that is consistent with sound fiscal management principles should include all of the following:
